OPEN HEAVENS 3 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: THE WORD TRAVELS

MEMORISE:

So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.
Isaiah 55:11

READ: Matthew 3:1-5

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea,
2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
4 And the same John had his raiment of camelâ??s hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.
5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan,

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 3 DECEMBER 2026 TODAYâ??S MESSAGE

Yesterday, I mentioned that God created all things by His Word. Since God created all things, it means that He can always recreate anything the devil might have stolen from your life. For example, if you need God to replace parts of your body that might be damaged, you can go ahead to ask Him because He has them in abundance.

Apart from creating, the Word of God also travels. 1 Kings 17:2 says that the word of God came to Elijah. Psalm 107:20 also says that He sent His word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. This means that the word travelled, arrived at a destination, and began to perform Godâ??s will there. I pray that the word of God will come to you today, even as you are reading this devotional, and it will perform Godâ??s will in your life, in Jesusâ?? name.

The word of the Lord is no respecter of persons or positions. It can bypass a king and arrive at the house of an unknown person. In Jeremiah 1:1-2, the Bible says that the word of God came to Jeremiah, even though Josiah was the king of Judah at that time. Later in that chapter, the Lord told Jeremiah that He had put His word in his mouth and set him over nations and kingdoms to do exploits for Him (Jeremiah 1:9-10).

The Word of God can also travel as far as the wilderness to reveal itself to someone the world may consider a â??nobodyâ??. In Luke 3:1-2, we see a list of some of the influential people during the time of John the Baptist. However, the Bible says that the word of the Lord went straight to an unknown prophet in the wilderness â?? John, the son of Zacharias. When the Word of God travelled to John, incredible things began to happen in his life and ministry.

Although he was in the wilderness, todayâ??s Bible reading tells us that all of Jerusalem, Judea, and the regions around Jordan went out to him. Despite his location, people came from far and near to see him because the word of the Lord went to him, took him out of obscurity, and positioned him for influence and visibility.

Beloved, I pray that the word of God will travel to you and your household and bring you into His light, in Jesusâ?? name.

PRAYER POINT

Father, please cause Your word to come to me and bring me into Your light, in Jesusâ?? name.

BIBLE IN ONE YEAR

2 Corinthians 1-4

HYMN: Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour
