OPEN HEAVEN 15 JUNE 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: BE RICH IN GOOD WORKS

MEMORISE:

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.
Ephesians 2:10

READ: 1 Timothy 6:17-19

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;
18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;
19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

RCCG OPEN HEAVEN 15 JUNE 2026 TODAY MESSAGE

I once spent the night in the house of a wealthy man, and he invited me to stay for breakfast. When I got to the dining table, I was presented with a variety of dishes to choose from. There were so many options that I became overwhelmed and began to long for the simplicity of the meals in my house.

Beloved, I have spent a little over 80 years in this world, and I have realised that it takes really simple things to truly enjoy life. It is good to be wealthy; however, if people make their material possessions the focus of their lives to the extent that even regular things in their lives become complicated, it can lead to depression.

In todayâ??s Bible reading, Paul urged Timothy to tell those who were rich in the church he was overseeing not to be high-minded but to be rich in good works.

God doesnâ??t give people wealth so they can flaunt it; He blesses people with wealth so they can be good stewards of His resources. Any fellow who hoards what God has given him or her will not enjoy happiness because it is always more blessed to give than to receive (Acts 20:35).

God wants His children to be rich in good works. He wants them to be like the women in Luke 8:2-3 who used their resources to minister to Jesus and advance His earthly ministry. The blessings that God has given to you should be used to bless others.

No matter how big your house is, you cannot sleep in all the rooms in it at the same time. No matter how rich you are, it will be foolish to wash your hands with oil instead of water because you will only be causing trouble for yourself. Life is simple; it should not be complicated in the process of trying to flaunt wealth. Many people have fallen into a state of depression because they allowed their wealth to distract them from the simplicity of life.

Beloved, the only way the wealth God blesses you with can truly make you happy is when you are rich in good works like feeding the poor, supporting missionaries on mission fields, building churches, and expanding Godâ??s kingdom in whatever way you can. Therefore, rather than spending your money on the most expensive things you can get, use it to make an impact for Godâ??s kingdom in the world.

REFLECTION:

Are you rich in good works?

OPEN HEAVEN DEVOTIONAL 15 JUNE 2026 COMMENTARY

MEMORISE: Ephesians 2:10

> â??For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.â?•

The word â??workmanshipâ?• (Greek poiema) means a masterpiece, a work of art. You are Godâ??s masterpieceâ??not created for selfish accumulation, but â??unto good works.â?• God has already prepared specific good works for you to walk in. Wealth, therefore, is not an end in itself. It is fuel for the good works God designed you to do. When you use your resources for His purposes, you become what you were always meant to be.

BIBLE READING: 1 Timothy 6:17-19

> â??Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.â?•

Daddy Adeboye uses this text to show that wealth is a stewardship, not an ownership. What you give away is what you store up for eternity.

The Simplicity of True Enjoyment

1. Daddy Adeboyeâ??s Breakfast Testimony

Daddy Adeboye shares a revealing personal experience:

> â??I once spent the night in the house of a wealthy man, and he invited me to stay for breakfast. When I got to the dining table, I was presented with a variety of dishes to choose from. There were so many options that I became overwhelmed and began to long for the simplicity of the meals in my house.â?•

This is a striking admission from a man who leads one of the largest church denominations in the world. With access to anything, he found himself longing for simplicity.

The Wealthy Manâ??s Table	Daddy Adeboyeâ??s Response
Overwhelming variety	Became overwhelmed
Many options, complicated choices	Longed for simplicity
Extravagant display	Missed the simple meals at home

> â??I have spent a little over 80 years in this world, and I have realised that it takes really simple things to truly enjoy life.â?•

This is wisdom from a lifetime of experience. Joy is not found in complexity, excess, or ostentation. Joy is found in simple things: a peaceful meal, a quiet home, meaningful relationships, and a clear conscience before God.

2. When Wealth Complicates Instead of Simplifies

Daddy Adeboye warns:

> â??It is good to be wealthy; however, if people make their material possessions the focus of their lives to the extent that even regular things in their lives become complicated, it can lead to depression.â?•

Simple Life	Complicated Life (Wealth-Focused)
One meal, enjoyed gratefully	So many options, decision fatigue
A modest home, peaceful	A mansion, stressful to maintain
Enough clothes, functional	A closet full, nothing to wear
Basic transportation, reliable	Multiple luxury cars, constant worry about damage
Time for family and God	Time consumed by managing possessions

> â??No matter how big your house is, you cannot sleep in all the rooms in it at the same time. No matter how rich you are, it will be foolish to wash your hands with oil instead of water because you will only be causing trouble for yourself.â?•

This is a powerful image. Oil is valuable. Water is common. Using oil to wash your hands is not a sign of wealthâ??it is a sign of foolishness. Wealth becomes destructive when it is used for what it was never intended. The purpose of oil is not hand-washing. The purpose of wealth is not self-glorification.

The Purpose of Wealth: Good Works, Not Flaunting

1. Godâ??s Intent for Wealth

> â??God doesnâ??t give people wealth so they can flaunt it; He blesses people with wealth so they can be good stewards of His resources.â?•

Wrong Use of Wealth	Right Use of Wealth
Flaunting (showing off)	Stewarding (managing for the Owner)
Hoarding (keeping it all)	Distributing (sharing generously)
Self-indulgence (pleasing yourself)	Good works (serving others and God)
Building a personal empire	Building Godâ??s kingdom

> â??Any fellow who hoards what God has given him or her will not enjoy happiness because it is always more blessed to give than to receive (Acts 20:35).â?•

Acts 20:35 â?? â??Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.â?•

Notice: Jesus did not say it is more profitable to give than to receive (though it is). He said it is more blessed. The blessing is not just financialâ??it is joy, fulfillment, peace, and the smile of God. Hoarders are miserable because they were made to give. You cannot frustrate your design and expect happiness.

2. The Women of Luke 8:2-3

Daddy Adeboye points to a beautiful example:

> â??He wants them to be like the women in Luke 8:2-3 who used their resources to minister to Jesus and advance His earthly ministry.â?•

Luke 8:2-3 â?? â??And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmitiesâ?¦ Mary called Magdaleneâ?¦ and Joanna the wife of Chuza Herodâ??s steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.â?•

These women:

- Had been transformed by Jesus (healed, delivered)
- Used their wealth to support Jesusâ?? ministry
- Did not wait for a building fund or a formal offering
- Ministered to Jesus of their substance (their own resources)

The Womenâ??s Example	Modern Application
They gave to support Jesusâ?? earthly work	Give to support gospel preachers, missionaries, and church work
They gave consistently, not once	Be a regular, faithful giver
They gave from what they had	Give proportionally; everyone can give something
They gave without seeking spotlight	Give quietly, for Godâ??s glory, not human praise

The Warning: Wealth Without Good Works Leads to Depression

Daddy Adeboye makes a startling connection between wealth and mental health:

> â??Many people have fallen into a state of depression because they allowed their wealth to distract them from the simplicity of life.â?•

How does wealth lead to depression?

The Progression	Explanation
1. Wealth increases	More money, more possessions, more options
2. Focus shifts	From God, family, and simple joys to managing, protecting, and displaying wealth
3. Complexity multiplies	More decisions, more stress, more worry
4. Isolation grows	Wealth can create distance from others; fear of being used for money
5. Purpose vanishes	â??What am I living for?â?• becomes a haunting question
6. Depression sets in	The soul was made for more than accumulation

> â??Life is simple; it should not be complicated in the process of trying to flaunt wealth.â?•

The rich manâ??s breakfast table overwhelmed Daddy Adeboye. That is the irony: the very wealth meant to provide abundance ended up producing anxiety. The man with ten cars cannot decide which to drive. The woman with a hundred dresses has nothing to wear. The millionaire with multiple homes is exhausted from maintaining them. This is not blessing; this is bondage.

How to Be Rich in Good Works (Practical Steps)

Based on Daddy Adeboyeâ??s teaching and 1 Timothy 6:17-19, here is how to use wealth for true happiness:

1. Be â??Ready to Distributeâ?•

> â??That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate.â?•

Action	Meaning	Practical Application
Ready to distribute	Immediate, not delayed generosity	When a need arises, give quickly; do not procrastinate
Willing to communicate (share)	Cheerful, not reluctant	Give with joy, not grudgingly (2 Corinthians 9:7)

2. Feed the Poor

> â??The only way the wealth God blesses you with can truly make you happy is when you are rich in good works like feeding the poorâ?¦â?•

Proverbs 19:17 â?? â??He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.â?•

When you feed the poor, you are not losing money; you are lending to God. And God is the best debtor.

3. Support Missionaries

> â??â?¦supporting missionaries on mission fieldsâ?¦â?•

Missionaries leave comfort, family, and security to preach the gospel. Your wealth can send them, sustain them, and expand the reach of the kingdom. Every dollar given to missions is an investment in eternity.

4. Build Churches and Expand the Kingdom

> â??â?¦building churches, and expanding Godâ??s kingdom in whatever way you can.â?•

This includes:

- Supporting local church infrastructure
- Funding evangelistic outreaches
- Sponsoring Bible translation and distribution
- Supporting Christian education and media

> â??Rather than spending your money on the most expensive things you can get, use it to make an impact for Godâ??s kingdom in the world.â?•

The Eternal Perspective: Laying Up Treasure in Heaven

Paul concludes the 1 Timothy 6 passage with an eternal promise:

> â??Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.â?• (1 Timothy 6:19)

Earthly Treasure	Eternal Treasure
Rusts, decays, gets stolen	Never fades, perfectly secure (Matthew 6:19-20)
Stays on earth when you die	Greets you in heaven
Brings temporary comfort	Brings eternal reward
Can be taken by others	Cannot be taken

Earthly Treasure	Eternal Treasure
Is spent and gone	Is stored up forever

Every time you give to Godâ??s work, you are not losing wealth. You are transferring it to an account that never crashes, never devalues, and never closes.

The Simplicity of a Generous Life

Daddy Adeboyeâ??s message is profoundly simple: life is simple. Enjoy simple things. Use wealth for good works. Give generously. Be happy.

If You Hoard Wealth	If You Give Generously
You become complicated and anxious	You become simple and peaceful
You fear losing what you have	You trust God to provide more
You isolate yourself	You connect with others through generosity
You risk depression	You experience the joy of giving
You build temporary comfort	You lay up eternal treasure

Warning: Do Not Let Wealth Complicate Your Life

Daddy Adeboyeâ??s warning is clear: wealth is not the problem. Making wealth the focus of your life is the problem. When you flaunt wealth, you:

- Alienate others who have less
- Invite envy and predators
- Complicate the simple pleasures of life
- Risk your mental health through stress and anxiety
- Distract yourself from your true purpose

> â??Life is simple; it should not be complicated in the process of trying to flaunt wealth.â?•

Conclusion: Your Prayer for Generosity and Simplicity

Daddy Adeboye closes with the call to use wealth for kingdom impact. Pray this prayer with a heart ready to give.

Pray this:

> â??Father, I thank You for every resource You have entrusted to me. Forgive me for the times I have flaunted what You gave me, or hoarded what was meant to be shared. Forgive me for complicating my life with the pursuit of more when You have already given me enough. Today, I choose simplicity. I choose generosity. I choose to be rich in good worksâ??feeding the poor, supporting missionaries, building Your church, and expanding Your kingdom. Take my money. Take my possessions. Use them for Your glory. I do not want to lay up treasure on earth that will not last. I want to lay up treasure in heaven that will greet me on the other side. Make me a cheerful giver, a ready distributor, and a faithful steward. In Jesusâ?? mighty name.â?•

Action Steps:

1. The Simplicity Audit: Look at your life. Where has wealth (or the pursuit of it) made things unnecessarily complicated? Identify one area of complexity and simplify it this week (sell an unused possession, cancel an unnecessary subscription, reduce your options).
2. The Good Works Plan: List three specific â??good worksâ?• you can fund or participate in this month: feeding the poor, supporting a missionary, giving to a church project. Set aside a specific amount for each. Do not delay.
3. The Generosity Test: The next time you receive income (salary, gift, blessing), before you spend anything on yourself, give something away. Let generosity be your first reflex, not your last resort.

You are Godâ??s masterpiece, created for good works. Wealth is your tool, not your treasure. Give generously. Live simply. Lay up eternal wealth. Be rich in good works.
