OPEN HEAVENS 26 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: STAY COMMITTED

MEMORISE:

But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. Deuteronomy 32:15

READ: Psalm 1:1-6

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 26 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAYâ??S MESSAGE

Some people come to church and pray fervently until they receive their miracles, then their commitment to God begins to wane. Some even turn the very blessing God gives them into an excuse for neglecting His service. For instance, a dedicated church worker who God blesses with a dream job may start skipping church services â?? or stop attending altogether â?? claiming that the demands of work leave him or her exhausted and that Sunday mornings are now reserved for rest. Such a person is indirectly telling God to take the job away if He wants him or her to remain committed to serving Him.

Many years ago, a guest preacher from the USA paused his sermon at the RCCG headquarters and said to a man in the congregation, â??The Lord said that if you will serve Him, He will make you a millionaire.â?• In those days, the naira was more valuable than the dollar, and so, becoming a millionaire in naira was a big deal. At the time, the man, his wife, and their five children were living in a one-room apartment in Mushin, a suburb in Lagos.

Within six months, the prophecy came to pass. The man became very wealthy, and shortly after, we stopped seeing him in church. Every time we followed up with him, he would say, â??Oh, Sunday is usually the best time to see my business partners. That is the only day they are usually relaxed.â?• One day, I heard that he had a heart attack. When I saw him, he narrated the ordeal that led to the heart attack.

He had gotten a contract worth approximately 100 million naira from the Federal Government and had sourced the necessary funds to execute it; however, just two weeks before he was scheduled to be paid, the contract was suddenly cancelled. I told him not to worry and that God only wanted to draw him back to Him. I then prayed for him and assured him that the contract would not be given to anyone else. Eventually, the contract was restored to him, and God also healed him. Sadly, this man still did not return to God, and his latter end was worse than his former.

Beloved, God indeed blesses those who diligently seek Him (Hebrews 11:6); however, to remain blessed, you must stay committed to Him. Todayâ??s Bible reading clearly states that it is those who delight in the law of God and continue to meditate on it day and night that will be blessed.

KEY POINT

If your commitment to God diminishes after He blesses you, you are indirectly telling Him to withdraw the blessing.

OPEN HEAVENS DEVOTIONAL 26 NOVEMBER 2026 COMMENTARY

There is a subtle danger that many believers never see coming: the danger of blessing. We pray for breakthrough, and when it comes, we slowly drift from the One who gave it.
Todayâ??s devotional, â??Stay Committed,â?• is a loving warning from Daddy about the importance of remaining faithful to God after He has blessed us. Letâ??s look at some of the lessons from the devotional.

God Blesses Those Who Diligently Seek

Hebrews 11:6 says, â??But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.â?•
This means that your commitment to God is not in vain. The early mornings, the faithful service, the sacrifices you make for His kingdom â?? God sees it all, and He will reward you. But the story does not end with the blessing. The blessing is not the destination; it is a test. And that brings us to the second lesson.

Donâ??t Let Blessings Distract You from Serving God

The man in the story became very wealthy, and shortly after, they stopped seeing him in church. His excuse was: â??Sunday is usually the best time to see my business partners.â?• He had allowed his blessing to become a barrier between him and God.

This is a trap many believers fall into. A new job, a new business, a new relationship, or a new level of comfort can slowly push God to the margins. Prayer time shrinks. Church attendance becomes inconsistent. And we tell ourselves that God understands. The blessing is meant to draw you closer to God, not further away. Donâ??t let the gift replace the Giver.

To Remain Blessed, Stay Committed to God

The man in the story had a heart attack because a contract worth millions of naira was cancelled. Daddy told him not to worry â?? that God only wanted to draw him back to Him. The contract was restored, and God healed him. Sadly, the man still did not return to God, and his latter end was worse than his former.

To remain blessed, you must remain planted. Stay committed. Stay faithful. Stay rooted in the Word and in the house of God. Deuteronomy 32:15 warns that Jeshurun waxed fat and kicked â?? he forsook God when he became prosperous. Donâ??t let that be your story. Stay committed, and your blessing will remain.

Blessed, But Still Faithful

The story of the wealthy man who drifted from God is a warning to all of us. The blessing is not the finish line; it is a test of the heart. Today, examine your commitment. Has anything â?? a job, a business, a relationship, a comfort â?? begun to pull you away from God? Repent and return. Stay planted by the river. Stay committed to the One who blessed you. The blessing is sweet, but the Blesser is sweeter.

Action Steps

1. Examine your commitment level. Ask yourself honestly: Has my commitment to God waned since I received my breakthrough? Have I been skipping prayer, church, or service because of my blessing? Write down what you discover and repent.
2. Reestablish your priorities. Put God first in your schedule this week. Mark out time for prayer, the Word, and fellowship, and treat it as non-negotiable â?? just as you would a business meeting or a job commitment.
3. Stay planted in the Word and in fellowship. Commit to reading the Bible daily and attending church consistently. Surround yourself with other believers who will encourage you to remain faithful.

Prayer Points

1. Father, I thank You for being the rewarder of those who diligently seek You.
2. Lord, help me to stay committed to You. Let me never allow any blessing, job, business, or relationship to separate me from Your love, in Jesusâ?? name.
3. Father, forgive me for the times I have neglected You because of my blessings. Draw me back to Yourself and restore my commitment, in Jesusâ?? name.
4. Lord, I choose to put You first in my life. Be the top priority in my schedule, my finances, my time, and my heart, in Jesusâ?? name.
5. Father, help me to remain planted in Your Word. Let me delight in Your law and meditate on it day and night, so that I can remain blessed and fruitful, in Jesusâ?? name.
6. Lord, protect me from the trap of prosperity. Keep my heart humble and faithful, and let me never forsake the Rock of my salvation, in Jesusâ?? name.
7. Father, let my latter end be greater than my former. As I stay committed to You, bless me more and more, and let my life be a testimony of Your faithfulness, in Jesusâ?? name.
