TOPIC: WHAT IS GOD'S TEMPLE? 6

MEMORISE: Psalm 22:3

But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

BIBLE TEXT: 2 Chronicles 5:13-14

<sup>13</sup> It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lord; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the Lord;

<sup>14</sup> So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of God.

RCCG OPEN HEAVEN 29 JANUARY 2024 TODAY MESSAGE

The temple of God is much more than all I have discussed in this series so far.

In fact, if I want to call God's temple any particular name, I will probably call it the house of praise and power.

In our Bible reading for today, you will discover why David said:

I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD.

Psalm 122:1

The temple is a house of praise. Psalm 22:3 says that God inhabits the praises of Israel, and we saw a manifestation of this in our Bible reading today.

The temple is also the house of thanksgiving because our Bible reading passage today also says that they were thanking God too and not just praising Him (2 Chronicles 5:13).

In fact, David says in Psalm 100:4 that you should enter God's gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise.

As praise and thanksgiving go on, His glory fills the temple powerfully. So, when you go into the temple, you are actually going into God's glory.

That glory rubs off on you, and everywhere you go after that, you just begin to experience supernatural goodness and mercy.

God's temple is also a house where goodness and mercy abound. In Psalm 23:6, the Bible says:
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

There is a song I love so much, and it goes thus:

“Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days, all the days of my life (2x). And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever, and I will feast at the table set for me. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days, all the days of my life (2x).”

Beloved, I encourage you to sing this song prophetically, and if you do not know the song, you can just speak the words into your life.

You must, however, go beyond merely singing or speaking the words, you must live it.

Dwelling in the house of the Lord precedes feasting at the table set before you.

Whether the enemy likes it or not, when you are in the house of the Lord praising and thanking Him, a table will be set before you, and nothing can tamper with it!

OPEN HEAVEN 29 JANUARY 2024 KEY POINT

The benefits of being in God's temple are far too great to be missed.

BIBLE IN ONE YEAR

Leviticus 5-7

RCCG HYMN 18: PRAISE TO THE LORD THE ALMIGHTY

1. Praise to the Lord,
the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation:
Join the great throng
psaltery, organ and song
sounding in glad adoration!

2. Praise to the Lord,
who over all he gloriously reigneth:
Borne as on eagle-wings, safely
his saints, He sustaineth.
Hast thou not seen
How all thou needest hath been
Granted in what He ordaineth?

3. Praise to the Lord,
who doth prosper thy way and defend thee;
Surely his goodness and mercy
shall ever attend thee;
Ponder anew, What the Almighty can do,
Who with His love doth befriend thee

5. Praise to the Lord!
Oh, let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath breath, join with
Abraham's seed to adore Him!
Let the Amen, sum all our praises again;
Now as we worship before Him.
