OPEN HEAVENS 29 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: UNLIMITED GRACE II

MEMORISE:

Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.
2 Timothy 2:19

READ: Romans 8:1-14

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.
3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.
6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.
12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.
13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.
14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 29 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAYâ??S MESSAGE

Around 1980, I heard a message that was based on the doctrine of unlimited grace from a preacher in Ilorin, a state capital in South West Nigeria. He taught that if a person is born again and wants to commit a sin, such as adultery or fornication, all the fellow needs to do is to inform Jesus beforehand. He even taught that such a person should pray in this manner, saying, â??Lord Jesus, thank You for Your finished work on the cross at Calvary. Thank You for making me the righteousness of God in You. I am about to commit so and so sin, and when I am done, I will come back to tell You that I am sorry.â•

Unfortunately, he deceived many people, and I am sure that those who followed him and didnâ??t truly repent before they died have ended up in hell. I do not want you to be deceived by such preachers who twist the truth about Godâ??s grace. Anyone who sins willfully will go to hell, except he or she genuinely repents. If you do not believe me, read Hebrews 10:26-27:

For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

The purpose of grace is not to give you a license to sin without any consequences; rather, it is to enable you to live above sin such that it will no longer have any power over you. One of the popular Bible verses that preachers of the unlimited grace doctrine usually use to deceive people is Romans 8:1:
There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

Those preachers quote the first part, which says that there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, but leave out the part that says that they must not walk after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

In other words, the works of the flesh listed in Galatians 5:19-21 must not be found in them, but the fruit of the Spirit in Galatians 5:22-23 must be seen in them. It is only for people who walk in the Spirit that there is no condemnation. For those who choose to keep walking after the flesh, however, they will be condemned.

KEY POINT

Only those who are in Christ and walk according to the Spirit are free from condemnation.

HYMN: When We Walk with the Lord

OPEN HEAVENS DEVOTIONAL 29 NOVEMBER 2026 COMMENTARY

Yesterday, Daddy began addressing the false doctrine of unlimited grace.
Today, he continues with â??Unlimited Grace II,â?• going deeper into the danger of this deception and the true purpose of grace. Letâ??s look at some of the lessons from the devotional.

Donâ??t Be Deceived by Those Who Twist the Truth of Godâ??s Grace

Daddy shares a chilling account of a preacher who taught that if a born-again person wants to commit sin, all they need to do is inform Jesus beforehand. He even taught them how to pray it.

This is a sobering reminder that not every preacher is sent by God. Not every â??revelationâ?• is from above. 2 Timothy 4:3-4 warns that the time will come when people will not endure sound doctrine, but will heap to themselves teachers having itching ears, and will turn away their ears from the truth. You must be like the Bereans, searching the Scriptures daily to see whether these things are so. Test every teaching against the Word of God.

Grace Gives You Power to Say No to Sin

Titus 2:11-12 says, â??For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world.â?•

When temptation comes, you are not helpless. The same grace that saved you is the same grace that strengthens you to resist sin. Romans 6:14 says, â??For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.â?• Grace breaks the dominion of sin. It does not excuse sin; it defeats sin.

Only Those Who Walk After the Spirit Are Not Condemned

Romans 8:1: â??There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.â?•

The promise of no condemnation is conditional. It is for those who walk after the Spirit, not for those who continue in the flesh. Galatians 5:22-23 lists the fruit of the Spirit â?? love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. It is only for people who walk in the Spirit that there is no condemnation. So examine your walk. Are you walking after the Spirit or after the flesh? The answer determines whether you are living under grace or under condemnation.

Grace That Empowers, Not Excuses

This is a call to embrace the true grace of God, which saves us, teaches us, and empowers us to live holy lives.
Today, examine what you believe about grace. Are you walking after the Spirit or after the flesh? Are you using grace as an excuse or as empowerment?
Repent of any misuse of grace, and ask the Holy Spirit to help you walk in step with Him. The grace of God is not a license to sin â?? it is the power to overcome it.

Action Steps

1. Test every teaching against the Word. This week, take time to study what the Bible says about grace, sin, and holiness. Donâ??t rely on secondhand revelation; verify everything against the Scriptures like the Bereans did.
2. Examine your walk. Honestly assess whether you are walking after the Spirit or after the flesh. Identify any areas where you have been using grace as an excuse to continue in sin, and repent.
3. Rely on grace to say no. The next time you face temptation, consciously call on the grace of God to strengthen you to resist. Declare that sin shall not have dominion over you because you are under grace.

Prayer Points

1. Father, I thank You for the true grace that saves me, teaches me, and empowers me to live a holy life. Thank You for Your Word that exposes deception and guides me into truth.
2. Lord, protect me from false teachers and deceptive doctrines. Give me the discernment to recognize those who twist the truth of Your grace, and keep me grounded in Your Word, in Jesusâ?? name.
3. Father, help me to understand the true purpose of grace. Let me never use grace as a license to sin, but as the power to live above sin, in Jesusâ?? name.

4. Lord, I choose to walk after the Spirit. Help me to put to death the deeds of the flesh and to live according to Your Spirit, in Jesusâ?? name.
5. Father, give me the power to say no to sin. Let Your grace strengthen me in every temptation and let sin have no dominion over me, in Jesusâ?? name.
6. Lord, search my heart and expose any area where I have been compromising. Lead me to genuine repentance and restore me to a right standing with You, in Jesusâ?? name.
7. Father, let the fruit of the Spirit be evident in my life. Produce in me love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance, in Jesusâ?? name.
