RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 30 MAY 2026 TODAY MESSAGE

God is unlimited by time, and as such, He doesnâ??t grow old. In Daniel 7:9-10, He is referred to as the Ancient of Days. He existed before the beginning of time and created time in itself. As He doesnâ??t age, it means that His strength never diminishes.

Isaiah 40:28-31 tells us that God is never tired. A young man can wake up in the morning feeling refreshed and strong, but he will be tired by the end of the day and will need to sleep. God, however, can never become tired. In fact, He never sleeps nor slumbers (Psalm 121:4).

As the Ageless God, He is eternally new, and His mercies are new every morning (Lamentations 3:23). By His mercies, He can strengthen the weary, bring seemingly dead situations back to life, and restore lost opportunities.

In todayâ??s Bible reading, we see the Ageless God at work in the lives of Zachariah and Elisabeth. The couple were well stricken in years and had no hope that they could ever have a child again. When the Ageless One stepped into their case, however, He made their old bodies become new. Elisabeth received vitality and strength in her womb, and she became pregnant.

No matter how old a thing is, when the Ageless One steps into it, He can make it as good as new. He did it for Sarah when He caused her womb, which was as good as dead (Romans 4:19), to bring forth a child.

If you feel like you cannot be successful because you missed an opportunity in the past, or that you are too old to be fruitful, I pray in the name of Jesus that the Ageless One will visit you today. He will give you a new lease of life and cause you to be fruitful.

Caleb also experienced the ageless power of the Ageless God. At 80 years old, his strength remained as it had been when he was 40 and was sent to spy on the land of Canaan. An 80-year-old man asked for a mountain because his strength had been preserved (Joshua 14:612). Those who wait on the Lord will renew their strength, regardless of how aged they may be.

Beloved, if there is any area in your life where you feel like your strength has been depleted or you cannot bear fruit again, I pray that the Ageless God will renew your vitality and cause you to do the impossible, in Jesusâ?? name.

KEY POINT

The ageless God can renew the age and strength o those who wait on him.

BIBLE IN ONE YEAR

Job 13-16

Open Heavens HYMN 17: PRAISE MY SOUL THE KING OF HEAVEN

OPEN HEAVENS DEVOTIONAL 30 MAY 2026 COMMENTARY

MEMORISE: Isaiah 40:31

â??But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.â?•

This verse is a promise of supernatural renewal. The word â??renewâ?• means to exchangeâ??to trade your old, depleted strength for Godâ??s fresh, limitless supply. Waiting on the LORD is not passive; it is active dependence. The result is not just survival but soaring: mounting up with eaglesâ?? wings, running without weariness, walking without fainting. This promise is for every believer who feels drained, old, or exhausted.

BIBLE READING: Luke 1:6-7, 57-58

This passage introduces Zachariah and Elisabeth, a righteous couple who walked blamelessly in Godâ??s commandments. Yet they had one sorrow: Elisabeth was barren, and both were â??well stricken in yearsâ?•â??advanced in age, past the natural window for childbearing. Humanly speaking, their case was hopeless. But God sent an angel to announce that Elisabeth would bear a son, John the Baptist. When the time came, she gave birth, and her neighbors and relatives rejoiced with her. This passage demonstrates that the Ageless God can make old bodies new, dead wombs fruitful, and hopeless cases into testimonies.

The Ageless God and Your Depleted Strength

In todayâ??s devotional, Pastor E.A. Adeboye brings a message of hope to everyone who feels drained, too old, or too late. He introduces God as the Ageless Oneâ??the One who never grows tired, never grows old, and never runs out of strength. And because He is ageless, He can renew your strength, restore your vitality, and make you fruitful again.

The God Who Never Tires

The devotional establishes who God is:

- He is the Ancient of Days (Daniel 7:9-10) â??He existed before time began.
- He never grows old â??He is unaffected by the passage of years.

- He never grows tired (Isaiah 40:28) â??Unlike young men who wake up strong but are weary by night, God never needs sleep (Psalm 121:4).
- His mercies are new every morning (Lamentations 3:23) â??Every day, He has fresh supplies for your depleted soul.

Because He is ageless, His strength never diminishes. What He had a thousand years ago, He has today. What He gave to Abraham, He can give to you.

Zachariah and Elisabeth: Old Bodies Made New

The Bible reading gives a powerful example of the Ageless God at work. Zachariah and Elisabeth were righteous, faithful, and devoted to God. But they were also oldâ??â?•well stricken in years.â?• Elisabeth was barren, and now her body had shut down the possibility of childbearing.

Humanly speaking, their case was hopeless. The clock had run out. The window had closed. The doctorsâ??if there were anyâ??would have said, â??It is impossible.â?•

But the Ageless One stepped in. He did not look at their biological clocks. He did not consult their medical charts. He spoke, and Elisabethâ??s old womb received new vitality. She conceived and gave birth to John the Baptistâ??the forerunner of the Messiah.

The lesson: No matter how old a thing is, when the Ageless One steps into it, He can make it as good as new.

Sarah: The Womb That Was as Good as Dead

The devotional reminds us of Sarah, who was 90 years old when God promised her a son. Romans 4:19 says she had a womb â??as good as deadâ?•â??completely non-functional. But God did not need a functioning womb; He needed a believing heart. Sarah conceived Isaac, and the impossible became the father of nations.

What God did for Sarah, He can do for you.

- Dead womb? He can bring life.
- Dead business? He can bring profit.
- Dead ministry? He can bring revival.
- Dead dream? He can bring fulfillment.

Caleb: Strength Preserved at 80

The devotional gives another example: Caleb. At 80 years old, he said, â??I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out and to come inâ?• (Joshua 14:11).

Eighty years old, asking for a mountain. Not a valley, not a retirement homeâ??a mountain. Because his strength had been preserved by the Ageless God.

What kept Caleb strong? He waited on the Lord. He did not trust in his own youth or his own strength. He trusted in the One who never grows old.

What the Ageless God Can Do for You

1. He Can Renew Your Depleted Strength

You may feel drainedâ??physically, emotionally, spiritually. You have given out, poured out, and run dry. The promise of Isaiah 40:31 is for you: â??They that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength.â?• Not â??might renewâ?•â??shall renew.

2. He Can Make Old Things New

- Old dreams? He can resurrect them.
- Old relationships? He can restore them.
- Old bodies? He can strengthen them.
- Old ministries? He can revive them.

3. He Can Give You a New Lease of Life

The devotional prays: â??The Ageless One will visit you today. He will give you a new lease of life and cause you to be fruitful.â?•

A new lease is a fresh start. It is not more of the sameâ??it is a new beginning. God does not just patch up your old life; He gives you new life.

4. He Can Cause You to Bear Fruit Again

Elisabeth bore fruit in her old age. Sarah bore fruit in her old age. Caleb bore fruitâ??he conquered a mountainâ??in his old age.

Your best years may be ahead of you, not behind you.

How to Access the Ageless Godâ??s Power

1. Wait on the LORD

Waiting is not sitting around. Waiting is active dependence. It is saying, â??Lord, I cannot do this without You. I will not move until You move. I will not act until You speak.â?•

2. Stop Relying on Your Own Strength

The reason you are tired is that you have been running on your own fuel. Young men faint and are wearyâ??no matter how strong they are. Your natural strength has limits. Stop relying on it.

3. Exchange Your Weakness for His Strength

The word â??renewâ?• in Isaiah 40:31 literally means â??to exchange.â?• You trade your weakness for His strength. Your depletion for His supply. Your exhaustion for His energy.

4. Believe That Nothing Is Too Old for God

Do not write off any situation as â??too late.â?• Do not look at your age, your past failures, or your missed opportunities. The Ageless God is not limited by time. What took 90 years for Sarah took only a moment for God.

5. Ask for a New Lease of Life
The devotional prays specifically: â??The Ageless One will give you a new lease of life.â?• Ask Him for it. Pray, â??Lord, give me fresh strength. Give me new vitality. Make me fruitful again.â?•

The Areas That Need Renewal

The devotional applies to every area of depletion:

- Physical strength: Are you tired, sick, or weak? The Ageless God can renew your body.
- Emotional strength: Are you burned out, discouraged, or hopeless? He can renew your joy.
- Spiritual strength: Is your prayer life dry, your Bible reading cold? He can renew your fire.
- Relational strength: Is your marriage struggling, your family strained? He can renew your love.
- Ministry strength: Are you laboring without fruit, serving without results? He can renew your impact.

Conclusion: Your Strength Shall Be Renewed

Zachariah and Elisabeth thought their time had passed. Sarah laughed at the idea of a child. Caleb was 80 and asking for a mountain.

The Ageless God proved them all wrong.

- Elisabeth conceived.
- Sarah gave birth.
- Caleb conquered.

The same God is your Father. He has not changed. He does not grow old. His strength never diminishes.

- If you feel too old, He can make you new.
- If you feel too tired, He can renew your strength.
- If you feel too late, He can restore lost opportunities.
- If you feel too weak, He can make you soar like an eagle.

Wait on Him. Exchange your weakness for His strength. And watch the Ageless God do what only He can do.

Pray this:
â??Father, I come to You as the Ancient of Days, the Ageless One who never grows tired and never grows old. I admit that my strength is depleted. I am tired, drained, and running on empty. Forgive me for relying on my own youth, my own energy, my own resources. Today, I wait on You. Exchange my weakness for Your strength. Renew my vitality. Give me a new lease of life. Make me fruitful againâ??in my body, my family, my ministry, my dreams. In Jesusâ?? name, Amen.â?•

Action Steps:

- Identify the area where you feel â??too oldâ?• or â??too lateâ?•: Write it down. Is it a dream, a relationship, a ministry, a health issue?

- Stop running on your own fuel: Take a day this week to rest physically and spiritually. No striving. Just waiting.
- Practice the exchange: When you feel weak, say aloud, â??Lord, I exchange my weakness for Your strength right now.â?•
- Look for Calebâ??s mountain: What challenge have you been avoiding because you feel too old or too tired? Ask God for strength to face it.
- Thank God for new mercies: Every morning, thank Him that His mercies are newâ??not recycled, not leftovers, but fresh. Your renewal starts with gratitude.
