TOPIC: DIVINE REPOSITIONING I

MEMORISE:

Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.
Job 10:12

READ: Exodus 2:11-23

And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.
12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.
13 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?
14 And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well.
16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their fatherâ??s flock.
17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.
18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day?
19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may eat bread.
21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.
22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.
23 And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 12 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAYâ??S MESSAGE

To be repositioned means that a fellow had previously been in a particular position until something happened that led to the fellow being removed from that position before being reinstated to his or her original position. Naturally, this is how people are repositioned. When God wants to reposition a person, however, He will remove the circumstances and/or people that caused the person to lose his or her position and place the person on a higher level.

Todayâ??s Bible reading reveals that Moses became a fugitive due to an incident. He had gone to see his brethren in Egypt, and while he was there, he saw one of them being tormented by an Egyptian and decided to help. In the process, he killed the Egyptian and buried him. The following day, he saw two of his brethren fighting, and he said, â??If the enemy is tormenting one of you, we can understand. How can the two of you be tormenting each other?â?• Then, one of them replied, â??Who made you a judge over us? Do you want to kill me the same way you killed that Egyptian yesterday?â?•

Fear gripped Moses as it dawned on him that what he thought was hidden had been exposed, so he fled from Egypt and remained a fugitive for 40 years because Pharaoh wanted to kill him. When the time for his repositioning came, however, Pharaoh died. I pray that God will deal with anyone or anything that has been making life unbearable for you, in Jesusâ?? name.

When God repositions you, the next thing you should expect is divine visitation. After Moses ran from Pharaoh, he went to Midian, where he became a shepherd. One day, He moved the cattle he was looking after to Mount Horeb. Typically, grass grows well on plains for goats and sheep to graze on, but because God wanted to do a new thing in Mosesâ?? life, He led him to find pasture for the cattle on a mountain (Exodus 3:1). When the Almighty God wanted to reposition Moses, He ordered his steps to a mountain for an encounter.

Similarly, when He wants to reposition you, He will visit you and take you to a higher vantage point where you can experience more of His glory and see things more clearly. I pray that the Lord will reposition you for greatness before the end of this year, in Jesusâ?? name.

PRAYER POINT

Dear Lord, in any area of my life I am misaligned with Your will, please visit me and reposition me for greatness, in Jesusâ?? name.

BIBLE IN ONE YEAR

Acts 4-5

OPEN HEAVENS DEVOTIONAL 12 NOVEMBER 2026 COMMENTARY

Have you ever felt like you lost your place â?? like life knocked you out of position and you donâ??t know how to get back? Todayâ??s devotional, â??Divine Repositioning I,â?• brings a powerful word of hope.

Daddy shows us that Godâ??s repositioning is better than manâ??s repositioning. The story of Moses is a perfect example. Letâ??s look at some of the lessons from the devotional.

Divine Reposition Differs from Human Reposition

To be repositioned naturally means a person is reinstated to their original position. But when God repositions a person, He does something greater â?? He removes the circumstances and people that caused the person to lose their position and places them on a higher level.

Think about Joseph. He was thrown into a pit, sold as a slave, and wrongly imprisoned. But when God repositioned him, He did not just take him back to the pit â?? He took him to the palace (Genesis 41:41). Your setback is not the end of your story. He will not just give you back what you lost; He lifts you higher than where you started. Isaiah 61:7 says, â??For your shame ye shall have doubleâ?•

When God Repositions You, He Visits You

Moses fled from Pharaoh and remained a fugitive for 40 years because Pharaoh wanted to kill him. When the time for his repositioning came, however, Pharaoh died and God visited him.

Godâ??s repositioning is personal. He does not just change your circumstances from a distance; He shows up in your life. He speaks to you, guides you, and reveals Himself to you in a new way.

When He Visits You, He Takes You Higher

Daddy points out something remarkable in Exodus 3:1. Typically, grass grows well on plains for goats and sheep to graze on, but because God wanted to do a new thing in Mosesâ?? life, He led him to find pasture on a mountain. When the Almighty God wanted to reposition Moses, He ordered his steps to a mountain for an encounter.

This means that Godâ??s visitation comes with elevation. Perhaps you feel stuck in a plain right now â?? the same routine, the same struggles, the same limitations. But God is leading you to a mountain. He is calling you higher. When He visits you, He does not leave you where He found you. He lifts you to a new level of purpose, clarity, and glory.

Higher Ground Is Waiting

God does not just restore you; He elevates you. When He repositions you, He visits you, and when He visits you, He takes you higher. Moses went from a fugitive to a deliverer. And the same God who did that for Moses is ready to do it for you.

Donâ??t look at where you are and assume that is where you will stay. God is not finished with you. He is dealing with the Pharaohs, He is preparing the mountain, and He is coming to visit you. Your repositioning is on the way.

Action Steps

1. Trust God with your setbacks. Identify an area where you feel you have lost position. Instead of dwelling on the loss, bring it to God and ask Him to reposition you supernaturally.
2. Prepare for divine visitation. Set aside time this week to seek Godâ??s presence through prayer, worship, and the Word. Position yourself to hear from Him and to encounter Him in a new way.
3. Look for your mountain. Ask God to lead your steps to the higher place He has prepared for you. Be willing to leave the familiar plains and follow Him wherever He leads, even if it looks unusual.

Prayer Points

1. Father, I thank You for the promise of divine repositioning in my life.
2. Lord, remove every person, situation, or circumstance that has been making life unbearable for me, in Jesusâ?? name.
3. Father, visit me as You visited Moses. Let Your divine visitation come into my life and change my story, in Jesusâ?? name.
4. Lord, lead me to the mountain You have prepared for me. Order my steps to the place of encounter and higher purpose, in Jesusâ?? name.

5. Father, take me higher than I have ever been. Let my divine repositioning bring me to a new level of glory, favour, and usefulness in Your kingdom, in Jesusâ?? name.
6. Lord, turn every demotion into an elevation and every loss into a setup for a greater comeback, in Jesusâ?? name.
7. Father, reposition me for greatness before the end of this year, and let Your visitation preserve my spirit and launch me into my next season, in Jesusâ?? name.
