

Open Heavens 13 November 2026 Todayâ??s Devotional & Commentary

Description

The Open Heavens 13 November 2026 devotional for today is DIVINE REPOSITIONING II.

This is a daily devotion written by Pastor E. A. Adeboye, General Overseer of the Redeemed Christian Church of God (RCCG).

- Read: RCCG Open Heavens 12 November 2026 Devotional

OPEN HEAVENS 13 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: DIVINE REPOSITIONING II

MEMORISE:

And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.
Genesis 13:14-15

READ: Matthew 17:1-9

And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,
2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.
3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.
4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.
5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.
7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.
8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.
9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 13 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAYâ??S MESSAGE

When Godâ??s time to reposition a fellow comes, such a person will not have to worry about his or her enemies because the King of kings Himself will handle them. In 1 Kings 19:1-8, after God repositioned Elijah on the same Mount Horeb where He repositioned Moses, Elijah never ran from anyone again. In fact, as 1 Kings 21:20-24 reveals, he boldly approached the king of Israel to inform him about Godâ??s judgment.

God often repositions people so they can see far. When you are on a mountaintop, for instance, you will be able to see farther than someone in a valley. If you have ever been on a plane, you will discover that the higher it goes, the farther you can see. When you are on the ground, houses, trees, and other objects will block your view, but as you go higher, you will see more objects and things. In Genesis 13:14-17, God made it clear to Abraham that he could have everything he could see. Then, He instructed him not to stand in one spot, but to walk the length and breadth of the land, and He would give him whatever he could see.

At times, when God repositions a person, He does that so that the person can see the unusual. He does that so that the person can see what He is about to make available for him or her. In todayâ??s Bible reading, the Lord took three of His disciples with Him to the Mount of Transfiguration to see what ordinary eyes could not see. They saw the Lord transfigured, and they also saw Moses and Elijah, who had been dead for hundreds of years. They saw what ordinary eyes could not see because the Lord repositioned them to a mountaintop.

In Mark 5:35-43, when the Lord Jesus Christ wanted to show Peter, James, and John how to raise the dead, he repositioned them. When He and His disciples arrived at Jairusâ?? house, He kept the others outside and only allowed the three of them to follow Him inside; the three disciples witnessed how He raised Jairusâ?? daughter from the dead. Years later, in Acts 9:36-42, when Peter was about to raise Dorcas from the dead, he followed the example set before him by the Lord.

Beloved, God wants to reposition you to a mountaintop, and that mountaintop is a place of closer communion with Him. Are you ready for this repositioning?

PRAYER POINT

Father, please reposition me so that I can see and experience more of Your blessings.

BIBLE IN ONE YEAR

Acts 6-7

HYMN: I Am Thine, O Lord

OPEN HEAVENS DEVOTIONAL 13 NOVEMBER 2026 COMMENTARY

Yesterday, Daddy introduced us to the concept of divine repositioning â?? how God lifts a person from a place of loss to a higher level.

Today, he continues with â??Divine Repositioning II,â?• showing us what happens when that repositioning takes place. Letâ??s look at some of the lessons from the devotional.

When God Repositions You, He Deals with Your Enemy

In 1 Kings 19:1-8, after God repositioned Elijah on the same Mount Horeb where He repositioned Moses, Elijah never ran from anyone again. In fact, as 1 Kings 21:20-24 reveals, he boldly approached the king of Israel to inform him about Godâ??s judgment.

You donâ??t have to fight every battle yourself. When God lifts you to a higher level, He also takes care of the enemies that used to intimidate you. The same Jezebel that made Elijah run for his life could not stop him after his repositioning. Perhaps there is someone or something that has been threatening your peace and progress. Take heart â?? when God repositions you, He handles them. You will look back and wonder why you were ever afraid.

When God Repositions You, You See Far

Divine repositioning expands your vision, and expanded vision expands your possession. Daddy explains that when you are on a mountaintop, you can see farther than someone in a valley. In Genesis 13:14-17, God told Abraham to lift up his eyes and look from where he was and promised him all the land he could see. What you can see, you can possess.

God repositions you to give you a clearer perspective. When you are in the valley of depression, fear, or confusion, your vision is limited. But when God lifts you to the mountaintop of His presence, you begin to see what He sees. You see opportunities where you once saw obstacles. You see a future where you once saw failure. You see the promises of God stretching out before you.

When God Repositions You, You See the Unusual

God repositions a person so they can see what He is about to make available for them. In todayâ??s Bible reading, the Lord took three of His disciples to the Mount of Transfiguration to see what ordinary eyes could not see. They saw the Lord transfigured, and they also saw Moses and Elijah, who had been dead for hundreds of years.

God wants to show you things others cannot see. He wants to reveal secrets, strategies, and solutions that are hidden from the natural eye. But those revelations come on the mountaintop â?? in the place of closer communion with Him. Are you ready for this repositioning? Are you willing to leave the crowd and climb higher with God?

The Mountain Is Calling

When God repositions you, He deals with your enemies, He gives you a vision that reaches farther, and He opens your eyes to the unusual. The mountaintop is not just a place of elevation â?? it is a place of closer communion with Him.

Today, leave behind the fears that once held you, the limited vision that once confined you, and the ordinary that once satisfied you. God is inviting you to a place where you see farther, see deeper, and see what He is about to do. Say yes to it!

Action Steps

1. Release your enemies to God. Identify anyone or anything that has been fighting against you, and release them to God in prayer. Trust Him to deal with them as you focus on climbing higher.
2. Ask God to expand your vision. Spend time in prayer asking God to show you what He sees for your life. Write down the vision He gives you and keep it before you as a reminder of where He is taking you.
3. Pursue deeper communion with God. Make a deliberate effort this week to draw closer to God â?? through extended prayer, fasting, worship, or study of His Word. Position yourself for the mountaintop encounter He wants to give you.

Prayer Points

1. Father, thank You for lifting me higher and for the enemies You have already dealt with on my behalf.
2. Lord, please deal with every enemy that has been fighting against me, in Jesusâ?? name.
3. Father, give me a clearer vision. Lift me to the mountaintop so I can see farther than I have ever seen, in Jesusâ?? name.
4. Lord, let me see what You are about to make available for me. Open my eyes to the unusual and reveal what ordinary eyes cannot see, in Jesusâ?? name.
5. Father, lead me to the mountaintop of closer communion with You. Let me climb higher into Your presence, in Jesusâ?? name.
6. Lord, let my vision become my possession. As I see the land You have promised me, give me the courage to walk its length and breadth and take possession of it, in Jesusâ?? name.
7. Father, I am ready for this repositioning. Take me higher, show me more, and prepare me for what is coming next, in Jesusâ?? name.

Facebook: RCCG Live

Read RCCG Open Heavens Devotional for Tomorrow

Download Open Heavens 13 November 2026 Devotional PDF