

Open Heavens 28 November 2026 Todayâ??s Devotional & Commentary

Description

The Open Heavens 28 November 2026 devotional for today is UNLIMITED GRACE I

This is a daily devotion written by Pastor E. A. Adeboye, General Overseer of the Redeemed Christian Church of God (RCCG).

- Read: RCCG Open Heavens 27 November 2026 Devotional

OPEN HEAVENS 28 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: UNLIMITED GRACE I

MEMORISE:

For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Titus 2:11-12

READ: Romans 6:1-12

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?
2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?
3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?
4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.
5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:
6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.
8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:
9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.
10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 28 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAY MESSAGE

Some pastors concoct strange and ungodly doctrines, calling them â??new revelationsâ?? just to excite their congregation. Like the Berean Christians (Acts 17:10-11), you must always return to the Scriptures to conduct a deep study about what the word of God says before you believe any â??new revelationâ?? a minister shares. One of such strange revelations is the message of unlimited grace. It might seem new to some people, but it has actually existed since biblical times. Some Bible scholars have traced its origin to Nicolas, one of the first deacons chosen to serve in Acts 6:5. Jesus specifically told the Pergamos church that they were to stop following the Nicolaitian doctrine immediately (Revelation 2:15-16). It is a message that the devil brings up over and over again to dissuade Christians, but just like every false doctrine, it does not stand the test of time. Therefore, the devil brings it back up again whenever it fades away. The unfortunate thing is that many people would die in their sins due to the false message before they realise the truth.

The preachers of the unlimited grace message insist that once a person is saved, he or she is forever saved. They claim that such a fellow can sin as much as he or she wants because the grace of God already covers the fellow. This is, however, untrue. Romans 6:1-2 says that God forbid that we continue in sin that grace may abound.

Furthermore, the Bible says in 2 Corinthians 5:17 that if a person is in Christ, he or she is a new creature; old things have passed away, and all things have become new. Therefore, when someone says that once a person is born again, the person can continue doing the things his or her old nature was doing, and grace will cover it, you should know that it is incorrect.

Beloved, the One who saved you is a holy God (1 Peter 1:15). How can a holy God save you to give you permission to sin as you like? How will you judge the world, as 1 Corinthians 6:2 says, if you are behaving in the same way they are? What is the difference between you and the people in the world if you do the same things they do? Do not be deceived; Godâ??s standard is clear. If you call on the name of Christ, then you must depart from iniquity (2 Timothy 2:19).

KEY POINT

Godâ??s grace is not a license to sin; it is an empowerment to live a holy life because God is holy.

BIBLE IN ONE YEAR

Romans 15-16

OPEN HEAVENS DEVOTIONAL 28 NOVEMBER 2026 COMMENTARY

Grace is one of the most beautiful words in the Christian faith. It is the unmerited favour of God that saves us, sustains us, and transforms us. But todayâ??s devotional, â??Unlimited Grace I,â?• addresses a dangerous distortion of this precious truth. Daddy warns against the false teaching that once a person is saved, they can sin freely because grace covers everything. This is not the gospel â?? it is a deception. Godâ??s grace is not a license to sin; it is the power to live a holy life. Letâ??s examine what the Word says about this vital truth.

Be Holy

The first lesson is that we must be holy. Daddy says, â??The One who saved you is a holy God (1 Peter 1:15). How can a holy God save you to give you permission to sin as you like?â?• This is a powerful question. The God who called us to salvation is holy, and He calls us to reflect His holiness in our lives. 1 Peter 1:15-16 says, â??But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.â?• In everyday life, this means that salvation is not just about escaping hell â?? it is about being transformed into the image of Christ. It is about living differently from the world around us. When you claim to be a child of God, your life should reflect your Father. You cannot continue in the same sins you used to commit and claim that grace covers it. The grace that saves you also teaches you to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts and to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world (Titus 2:11-12). Holiness is not optional for the believer â?? it is the natural response to the grace we have received.

Studying the Word of God Exposes False Doctrine

The second lesson is that studying the Word of God exposes false doctrine. Daddy says, â??Some pastors concoct strange and ungodly doctrines, calling them â??new revelationsâ?? just to excite their congregation. Like the Berean Christians (Acts 17:10-11), you must always return to the Scriptures to conduct a deep study about what the word of God says before you believe any â??new revelationâ?? a minister shares.â?• The Bereans were noble because they searched the Scriptures daily to verify what Paul was teaching them. In everyday life, this means that you cannot rely on your pastor, your favorite preacher, or the latest Christian trend to tell you what is true. You must study the Word yourself. The Bible is your standard, and every teaching must be tested against it. Isaiah 8:20 says, â??To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.â?• The doctrine of unlimited grace â?? the idea that a believer can sin freely because grace covers everything â?? does not pass the test of Scripture. Romans 6:1-2 says, â??What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid.â?• When you study the Word, you will not be deceived by doctrines that tickle the ears but deny the power of God.

Godâ??s Grace Is Not a License to Sin

The third lesson is that Godâ??s grace is not a license to sin. Daddy addresses the false message that says a person can be saved and then continue in sin because grace already covers them. He says plainly, â??This is, however, untrue.â?• In 2 Corinthians 5:17, the Bible says that if a person is in Christ, he or she is a new creature; old things have passed away, and all things have become new. When you are born again, you are not the same person you used to be. The old nature is crucified with Christ. Romans 6:6-7 says, â??Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin.â?• In everyday life, this means that your relationship with sin has changed. You may still be tempted, but you are no longer a slave to sin. Grace does not give you permission to return to the pit from which you were saved. Grace is the power that keeps you out of the pit. It teaches you to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts. It empowers you to say no to sin and yes to God. If you call on the name of Christ, you must depart from iniquity (2 Timothy 2:19). The grace of God is not a license to sin â?? it is the invitation to live a holy life.

The Grace That Transforms

What a powerful and necessary warning from Daddy. We must be holy. Studying the Word exposes false doctrine. And Godâ??s grace is not a license to sin. This message is a call to discernment and obedience. It is a reminder that the grace of God is not a cover for sin but a cure for it. This week, examine what you believe about grace. Have you been treating it as permission to continue in sin? If so, repent. And more importantly, commit to studying the Word for yourself, so that you can recognize and reject every false doctrine that comes your way. Godâ??s grace is beautiful, but it never compromises with sin. It is the grace that saves us, teaches us, and transforms us into the image of our holy God.

Action Steps

1. Examine your understanding of grace. Ask yourself honestly: Have I been treating Godâ??s grace as a license to sin? Repent of any misuse of grace and ask God to help you understand its true meaning.
2. Study the Word for yourself. Commit to reading the Bible daily and verifying every teaching you hear against the Scriptures. Donâ??t rely solely on preachers; be like the Bereans who searched the Scriptures daily.
3. Pursue holiness intentionally. Identify one area of your life where you have been compromising, and take a deliberate step to walk in holiness this week. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you live a life that pleases God.

Prayer Points

1. Father, I thank You for the gift of Your grace that saves me, sustains me, and transforms me. Thank You for loving me enough to call me to holiness.
2. Lord, help me to understand Your grace correctly. Teach me that grace is not a license to sin but the power to live a holy life, in Jesusâ?? name.

3. Father, I repent of any way I have misused Your grace. Forgive me for treating Your grace lightly and cleanse me from all unrighteousness, in Jesusâ?? name.
4. Lord, give me a heart for holiness. Help me to be holy as You are holy, and let my life reflect Your character in every area, in Jesusâ?? name.
5. Father, help me to study Your Word diligently. Expose every false doctrine and every deception, and let me be grounded in the truth of Your Word, in Jesusâ?? name.
6. Lord, protect me from false teachers and deceptive revelations. Give me the discernment to recognize error and the courage to reject it, in Jesusâ?? name.
7. Father, let Your grace transform me. Let it teach me to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts and to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world, in Jesusâ?? name.

Facebook: RCCG Live

Read RCCG Open Heavens Devotional for Tomorrow

Download Open Heavens 28 November 2026 Devotional PDF