OPEN HEAVENS 22 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: LET GOD ERASE YOUR PAST

MEMORISE:

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
1 John 1:9

READ: 2 Corinthians 5:17-21

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.
18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;
19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.
20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christâ??s stead, be ye reconciled to God.
21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 22 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY MESSAGE

Todayâ??s Bible reading tells us that Jesus came to the world for one primary reason â?? to reconcile man to God. Sin had separated humanity from its Creator, and only the spotless Lamb of God could bridge that gap. The Bible says, â??For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devilâ?• (1 John 3:8).

Through the blood of Jesus, every sin can be washed away. No matter how deep you may have gone in wrongdoing, the moment you genuinely confess and surrender your life to Jesus Christ, His mercy flows freely to cleanse you. Romans 10:9 says that â??if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.â?• The forgiveness of God is not partial; it is total. However, after you have been forgiven, the devil will often try to remind you of your past. He will continually whisper accusations to make you feel unworthy. When that happens, remind him that God has forgiven you, and you are now a new creature; therefore, everything in your life has become new.

In todayâ??s memory verse, the Bible says that the Lord is faithful to forgive our sins if we confess them. If you are a new creature in Christ, it means that your old nature no longer exists. The moment you encountered Jesus, He gave you a new life (2 Corinthians 5:17). Therefore, do not let guilt or even the devil himself imprison you again. When God forgives, He also chooses not to remember (Hebrews 8:12). However, to remain free, you must turn your back on sin completely. In Proverbs 28:13, the Bible says, â??He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.â?• Confession without repentance is self-deception.

To forsake sin means cutting off every connection with your old sinful ways. The friends, habits, or influences that may have led you astray in the past must be cut off. You must also delete any contact or avoid any environment that might lure you back into sin, and replace them with the things that glorify God. Until you let go of the past, you cannot fully step into the glorious future God has for you.

Beloved, Jesus has paid the full price for your redemption. Confess your sins, forsake them, and walk in the freedom He purchased with His blood.

PRAYER POINT

Father, please help me to shun sin and live daily in the freedom that Christ has given me.
