RCCG OPEN HEAVEN 29 JUNE 2026 TODAY MESSAGE

Todayâ??s Bible reading makes us understand that everything on earth was framed by Godâ??s word.

This means that the things which you can see were made from things that are unseen. This is why God wants His children to focus more on spiritual things than physical things.

In todayâ??s memory verse, Paul encourages us to fix our eyes on things which are not seen. Therefore, if you are going through a challenge, for example, instead of focusing only on what you can see physically, ask God to show you what is behind the challenge you are facing. Go to Him in prayers, and, like Rebekah did, ask Him, â??If it be so, why am I thus?â?• (Genesis 25:22).

Whenever there is a challenge, many people waste their time focusing only on what they can see physically. However, if they go to God in prayers and ask that their eyes be opened to see the unseen, He will answer them and also guide them towards the right solution.

In Luke 15:11-32, Jesus told the parable of the prodigal son who wasted his inheritance by living irresponsibly in a faraway country. Before long, he began to be in want and struggled to make ends meet. Things got so bad that he thought of eating food that was meant for pigs because he had nothing to eat. When he came to the end of himself, however, he decided to return to his father, and all his problems disappeared instantly. He would have continued struggling and running in circles if he had not changed his focus by returning to his father.

Beloved, if you keep facing the same challenge or struggling with an issue, you might need a change of focus. You need to fix your gaze on your heavenly Father by calling on Him in prayer. It doesnâ??t take God ages to answer prayers, but when your focus is in the wrong direction, you will not be able to see the provisions He has made for you to overcome whatever challenge you are facing.

All God wants you to do is to fix your gaze on Him so He can show you the path to your victory and release His blessings upon you. I pray that the Almighty God will help you to keep your gaze fixed on Him at all times, so you will be empowered to walk in total victory perpetually.

PRAYER POINT

Father, please help me to always fix my gaze on You so that I can walk in perpetual victory.

OPEN HEAVEN DEVOTIONAL 29 JUNE 2026 COMMENTARY

MEMORISE: 2 Corinthians 4:18

> â??While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.â?•

This verse is the apostle Paulâ??s prescription for perspective in the midst of affliction. Daddy Adeboye anchors todayâ??s devotional on this text because it draws a sharp contrast between two realms: the seen (physical, temporary, subject to decay) and the unseen (spiritual, eternal, unchanging). The word â??lookâ?• implies a deliberate, sustained gazeâ??not a casual glance. You must train your eyes to look away from the visible problem and toward the invisible reality. Why? Because what you focus on determines what rules your heart. Focus on the seen, and you will be overwhelmed by temporal troubles. Focus on the unseen, and you will be stabilized by eternal truths.

BIBLE READING: Hebrews 11:1-3

This passage reveals the foundational principle of the unseen realm. Daddy Adeboye draws from it the truth that everything visibleâ??the earth, the stars, your body, your circumstancesâ??originated from the invisible. God spoke, and what was unseen became seen. This means that the physical world is not ultimate reality; it is a manifestation of a deeper, spiritual reality. Therefore, to understand your situation, you cannot stop at what your eyes see. You must look beyond to the unseen realm where God is working, where your miracle is being framed, and where your victory is already prepared.

The Unseen Origin of All Things

1. Everything Visible Came from the Invisible

> â??Todayâ??s Bible reading makes us understand that everything on earth was framed by Godâ??s word. This means that the things which you can see were made from things that are unseen.â?•

Hebrews 11:3 â?? â??Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.â?•

| The Seen (Visible) | The Unseen (Invisible Source) |
|---|---|
| The universe, stars, planets | The word of God spoken from the unseen realm |
| Your physical body | Godâ??s breath, His design, His purpose |
| Your circumstances, challenges, opportunities | Spiritual realities, divine assignments, angelic activity |
| Your material resources | Godâ??s provision released from the invisible |

â??This is why God wants His children to focus more on spiritual things than physical things.â?•

If the visible came from the invisible, then the invisible is more real, more powerful, and more permanent than what you can touch, see, or measure. To focus only on the physical is to focus on the effect while ignoring the cause. To focus on the spiritual is to get to the root of all things.

2. The Temporal vs. The Eternal

â??In todayâ??s memory verse, Paul encourages us to fix our eyes on things which are not seen.â?•

| The Seen (Temporal) | The Unseen (Eternal) |
|---|---|
| Your problems | Godâ??s purposes |
| Your pain | Godâ??s presence |
| Your lack | Godâ??s provision |
| Your enemies | Godâ??s angelic host |
| Your failures | Godâ??s forgiveness |
| Your death | Godâ??s eternal life |

The seen things are â??temporalâ?• â?? they have an expiration date. Your sickness will not last forever. Your financial struggle will pass. Your heartbreak will heal. But the unseen thingsâ??Godâ??s love, His covenant, His power, His promisesâ??are â??eternal.â?• They never fade, never fail, never end.

How to Handle Challenges: Look Beyond the Seen

1. Ask God to Show You What Is Behind the Challenge

â??Therefore, if you are going through a challenge, for example, instead of focusing only on what you can see physically, ask God to show you what is behind the challenge you are facing.â?•

| The Natural Response | The Faith Response |
|---|---|
| Focus on the problem | Ask God for revelation |
| Complain about the circumstances | Pray about the circumstances |
| Try to fix it with human wisdom | Seek divine understanding |
| Get stuck in the seen | Look for the unseen purpose |

â??Go to Him in prayers, and, like Rebekah did, ask Him, â??If it be so, why am I thus?â?? (Genesis 25:22).â?•

Genesis 25:22 â?? Rebekah was pregnant with twins (Jacob and Esau), and the children struggled within her womb. She did not just accept the discomfort; she went to inquire of the Lord. She asked, â??If it be so, why am I thus?â?•

| Rebekahâ??s Example | Your Application |
|---|---|
| She experienced a troubling situation | You face a challenge |
| She did not assume she understood | Do not assume you know the reason |
| She went directly to God | Go to God in prayer |
| She asked â??whyâ?• | Ask God for revelation |

> â??Whenever there is a challenge, many people waste their time focusing only on what they can see physically. However, if they go to God in prayers and ask that their eyes be opened to see the unseen, He will answer them and also guide them towards the right solution.â?•

Do not waste time staring at the problem. Spend time seeking the God who sees what you cannot see. He will open your eyes to the unseen reality behind the visible challenge.

2. The Prodigal Son: A Change of Focus Changed Everything

> â??In Luke 15:11-32, Jesus told the parable of the prodigal son who wasted his inheritance by living irresponsibly in a faraway country. Before long, he began to be in want and struggled to make ends meet. Things got so bad that he thought of eating food that was meant for pigs because he had nothing to eat.â?•

Consider the prodigal sonâ??s journey:

| Stage | His Focus | His Condition |
|---|---|---|
| In the far country | Pleasure, independence, self-gratification | Wasted inheritance, destitute |
| In the pigpen | His hunger, his shame, his failure | Desperate, alone, hopeless |
| The turning point | He â??came to himselfâ?• and remembered his father | His focus shifted |

> â??When he came to the end of himself, however, he decided to return to his father, and all his problems disappeared instantly.â?•

| What Changed | Before | After |
|---|---|---|
| His focus | On his circumstances (hunger, pigs, failure) | On his father (home, provision, mercy) |

| What Changed | Before | After |
|---|---|---|
| His location | Far country (distant from the father) | Fatherâ??s house (close to the source) |
| His condition | Struggling, starving | Restored, feasting |

> â??He would have continued struggling and running in circles if he had not changed his focus by returning to his father.â?•

This is the key. The prodigal son did not need more money, more food, or better circumstances. He needed a change of focus. He needed to stop looking at his problem and start looking toward his father. When he did, his problems did not gradually improveâ??they disappeared instantly.

The Danger of Wrong Focus

> â??Beloved, if you keep facing the same challenge or struggling with an issue, you might need a change of focus.â?•

| Sign You Need a Change of Focus | What It Means |
|---|---|
| The same problem keeps recurring | You are stuck in a cycle of natural thinking |
| You pray but see no change | Your eyes are on the problem, not the Solution |
| You feel like you are running in circles | You are focused on the seen, not the unseen |
| You are exhausted but no progress | Human effort without divine revelation is futile |

> â??You need to fix your gaze on your heavenly Father by calling on Him in prayer. It doesnâ??t take God ages to answer prayers, but when your focus is in the wrong direction, you will not be able to see the provisions He has made for you to overcome whatever challenge you are facing.â?•

| Wrong Focus | Result |
|---|---|
| Eyes on the problem | You miss the provision right beside you |
| Eyes on the enemy | You miss the angelic host surrounding you |
| Eyes on your weakness | You miss the Greater One inside you |
| Eyes on the temporary | You miss the eternal |

The provisions are already made. The solution is already prepared. The answer is already waiting. But if your focus is in the wrong directionâ??looking at the seen rather than the unseenâ??you will walk right past your miracle.

How to Fix Your Gaze on the Unseen (Practical Steps)

Based on Daddy Adeboyeâ??s teaching, here is how to train your focus away from the temporal and toward the eternal:

1. Deliberately Redirect Your Gaze

â??Lookingâ?• in 2 Corinthians 4:18 is an active, intentional choice. You must decide where to aim your attention.

| Instead of Looking atâ?¦ | Look atâ?¦ |
|---|---|
| The size of the problem | The greatness of your God |
| The impossibility of the situation | The promise of His word |
| What you have lost | What He has prepared |
| The opposition against you | The angelic host for you |

2. Pray the Rebekah Prayer

When you do not understand what is happening, go to God and ask: â??Lord, if it be so, why am I thus?â?• Do not accept confusion. Do not settle for ignorance. Ask for revelation.

3. Return to the Father (Like the Prodigal)

If you have wandered far in your focusâ??fixated on the world, on your problems, on your own effortsâ??repent and return. Fix your gaze on your heavenly Father. He is not far away. He is waiting.

4. Measure Everything by Eternity, Not by Time

Before you react to any situation, ask: Will this matter in 100 years? In eternity? If not, do not let it steal your focus from what is eternal.

5. Feed Your Faith with the Unseen

- Read Scripture (the unseen word that frames reality)
- Pray (communication with the unseen God)
- Worship (entering the unseen realm of His presence)
- Fellowship with believers (the invisible bond of the Spirit)

Warning: The Seen Will Deceive You If You Let It

Daddy Adeboyeâ??s devotional carries a clear warning: the seen world is temporary, but it shouts loudly. It demands your attention. It tries to convince you that it is the only reality.

| The Seen Shouts | The Unseen Whispers |
|---|---|
| â??Look at how big your problem is!â?• | â??I am bigger than your problem.â?• |
| â??You are failing!â?• | â??My grace is sufficient for you.â?• |

| The Seen Shouts | The Unseen Whispers |
| --- | --- |
| â??This will never end!â?• | â??This light affliction is but for a moment.â?• |
| â??There is no hope!â?• | â??I am your hope.â?• |

Do not listen to the shout of the temporary. Tune your ear to the whisper of the eternal. Your circumstances are realâ??but they are not ultimate. Your pain is realâ??but it is not final. The unseen realm is more real, more powerful, and more permanent than anything your physical eyes can see.

Conclusion: Your Prayer for Fixed Focus

Daddy Adeboye closes with a prayer that God will help you keep your gaze fixed on Him at all times. Do not let the seen steal your focus. Look beyond. Look to the unseen.

Pray this:

> â??Lord Jesus, I confess that I have spent too much time looking at the seenâ??my problems, my pain, my lack, my circumstances. Forgive me for focusing on the temporal while ignoring the eternal. Today, I redirect my gaze. I fix my eyes on the unseenâ??on Your promises, on Your presence, on Your power, on Your eternal purposes. Like Rebekah, I ask You: â??If it be so, why am I thus?â?? Open my eyes to see what is behind my challenges. Like the prodigal son, I return my focus to my Father. I will not run in circles anymore. I will not struggle in vain. I fix my gaze on You, knowing that the things I see are temporary, but the things I do not see are eternal. Help me to walk in total victory by keeping my eyes on You, in Jesusâ?? mighty name.â?•

Action Steps:

1. The Focus Audit: Identify one area where you have been looking only at the seen (a recurring problem, a stubborn challenge). Ask: What would I see if I looked at the unseen realm in this situation? What is God doing behind the scenes?
2. The Rebekah Prayer: Set aside 15 minutes today to pray specifically about a situation you do not understand. Ask God: â??Lord, if it be so, why am I thus?â?• Wait silently for His answer. Write down what He reveals.
3. The Eternal Perspective Practice: For the next seven days, before you react to any difficult situation, pause and ask: Will this matter in eternity? If the answer is no, refuse to let it steal your peace or your focus.

> â??While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.â?• (2 Corinthians 4:18)
> Stop staring at the problem. Stop circling the same mountain. The seen is temporaryâ??it will pass. The unseen is eternalâ??it will last. Fix your gaze on your heavenly Father. Look beyond the visible to the invisible. That is where your solution is. That is where your victory is. That is where your hope is. Look. And live.
