OPEN HEAVEN 7 OCTOBER 2024 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: 'IMPOSSIBLE' PRAYERS I

MEMORISE

And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

Numbers 13:30

READ: Mark 11:12-24:

¹² And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

¹³ And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

¹⁴ And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

¹⁵ And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

- 16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.
- 17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.
- 18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.
- 19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.
- 20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.
- 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.
- 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.
- 23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.
- 24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

RCCG OPEN HEAVEN 7 OCTOBER 2024 TODAY MESSAGE

In continuing my teaching on the categories of prayer, I will focus on 'impossible' prayers today. The Bible says that some things are impossible with men, but with God, all things are possible (Matthew 19:26, Luke 1:37). If you have any doubt about this at all, just take a look at Redemption City, and you will know that with God, all things are possible.

There are buildings in Redemption City that were built in seven days and which have been standing for around 40 years. The first secondary school building in the city is a two-storey building that was built in 18 days.

I don't use human engineering, I use divine engineering because, with my God, nothing is impossible.

The moment God hears, "It can't be done" from your mouth, it just may never be done.

This is because Numbers 14:28 says, "...as ye have spoken in my ears, so will I do to you:" Despite a fellow's unbelief, God's purpose will always be done, only that He will raise up another generation that will get the work done. In Numbers 13-14, twelve spies were sent to Jericho; ten of them came back and said that they couldn't take the land, while only two said they could. God ensured that all the people who said that they couldn't take the land were wiped out in the wilderness, while only the two who said that it was possible entered the land.

In 2 Kings 7:1-17, Elisha proclaimed a seemingly impossible economic breakthrough within 24 hours. Everyone in the room kept quiet except one man who said that even if God created windows in heaven, it would be impossible. The breakthrough happened, but that man did not partake in it. Never say that anything is impossible; the moment someone says that something cannot be done, as far as he or she is concerned, it just may never be done.

When Jesus said in John 14:14, "If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it," He was not joking. Therefore, if I ask for something that seems impossible, He will give it to me because He did not put any limit on what I can ask for according to His will (1 John 5:14-15).

Beloved, don't express doubt when it comes to God. Don't try to understand what He can do and how He will do it. Just believe.

KEY POINT

Believe that with God, it can be done, and it will be done.
