RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 30 MARCH 2026 DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: CONDUITS OF POWER

MEMORISE:
Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.
Ecclesiastes 9:8

READ: Mark 6:53-56
53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.
54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,
55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.
56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

OPEN HEAVENS DEVOTIONAL 30 MARCH 2026 MESSAGE TODAY

Every part of the life and being of a Christian who is totally surrendered to God is a potent weapon in Godâ??s hands. For example, just as we see in todayâ??s Bible reading, clothes that are worn by people who have submitted their lives and all to God can become conductors of Godâ??s power.

Jesusâ?? garment was full of power; the sick touched the hem of His garment and were made whole, as we see in todayâ??s Bible reading. In Acts 19:11-12, God performed special miracles through Paul, such that aprons and handkerchiefs that he had worn were taken to the sick, and they received their healing.

Paul was not even among the first twelve apostles; he was a persecutor of the gospel of Jesus Christ until he was saved. However, after his conversion, God performed special miracles through him.

God is a miracle worker, but He is looking for vessels â?? men and women â?? who will believe Him so that He can release His power on the earth through them.

Child of God, your heavenly Father wants His power to flow through you so He can establish His Kingdom wherever you are. However, before your garment (which signifies your life) can become a conductor of Godâ??s power, your internal garment has to be pure.

Todayâ??s memory verse tells us that our garments should always be white. This has nothing to do with always wearing white clothes; instead, it has everything to do with the heart. If a fellowâ??s heart is not surrendered to the Lord and is full of greed, that personâ??s garment cannot carry Godâ??s power. Gehazi could have carried a double portion of Elishaâ??s anointing, but greed made him lose what could have been his spiritual inheritance (2 Kings 5:20-27).

Judas could have been the one through whom God healed the man at the Beautiful Gate in Acts 3:1-11. God could have performed mighty miracles through him, just as He did with the other apostles, but greed made him end his life shamefully (Matthew 27:3-5).

Beloved, God wants you to be a conduit of His power like Peter and Paul. However, you cannot reveal His power when you are not surrendered to Him. If you are yet to surrender totally to God, I implore you to do so today so you can be a carrier of His power. I pray that the Lord will clothe you with His garment and make you a conductor of His power, in Jesusâ?? name.

KEY POINT

if you surrender your life completely to God, He will make you a conduit of His power.

BIBLE IN ONE YEAR

1 Samuel 25-27

HYMN 33: GUIDE ME, O THOU GREAT JEHOVAH!

OPEN HEAVENS DEVOTIONAL 30 MARCH 2026 COMMENTARY

MEMORISE: Ecclesiastes 9:8
â??Let your garments always be white, and let your head lack no oil.â?•

This verse is not just about the clothes you wear. It is about the condition of your heart and your life before God. White garments stand for purity, holiness, and a life that is clean before God. The oil on your head speaks of the Holy Spiritâ??s anointing. When your heart is pure and the Spirit is upon you, your whole life becomes a channel for Godâ??s power.

BIBLE READING: Mark 6:53-56

This passage shows us what happens when a person is fully given to God:
Verse 53-54: When Jesus and His disciples crossed over to Gennesaret, the people recognized Him right away.
Verse 55: They ran through the whole region and began to bring sick people on mats to wherever they heard He was.
Verse 56: Wherever Jesus wentâ??villages, cities, or countrysideâ??they laid the sick in the marketplaces. They begged Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment. And as many as touched Him were made whole.

Notice: They did not need Jesus to pray for each person one by one. They just touched His clothes. Even His clothes carried His power. Why? Because He was completely surrendered to the Father.

Your Life Can Carry Godâ??s Power

Pastor E.A. Adeboye wants you to know something amazing: God wants to use you the same way He used Jesus and Paul. He wants your life to be so full of His presence that even your clothes can carry healing power. But there is a condition. Your heart must be pure. You must be fully surrendered to Him.

1. Power Can Flow Through Ordinary Things

Jesusâ?? Garment:

- In Mark 6, people touched just the hem of His clothes. They did not touch Him directly. But they were healed.
- This was not magic. It was the presence of God flowing through everything connected to Jesus.
- When you are full of God, His presence fills everything about youâ??your words, your hands, even your clothes.

Paulâ??s Handkerchiefs and Aprons:

- Acts 19:11-12 says God did special miracles through Paul. People took handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched his skin to the sick. The sick were healed and evil spirits left them.
- Paul was not one of the twelve apostles. He used to kill Christians. But after he surrendered fully to Jesus, God used him in mighty ways.
- If God could use Paul, He can use you.

The Point:

- It is not about how special you are. It is about how surrendered you are.
- When you give yourself completely to God, His power flows through you freely.

2. The Secret: A Pure Heart

White Garments Mean Purity:

- Ecclesiastes 9:8 says your garments should always be white. This means your life should be clean before God.
- You cannot have hidden sin and expect Godâ??s power to flow through you. Sin blocks the flow.

The Danger of Greed:

- Pastor Adeboye gives two sad examples: Gehazi and Judas.
- Gehazi (2 Kings 5:20-27) could have received a double portion of Elishaâ??s anointing. He was close to a great man of God. But greed made him lie and take money he should not have taken. He ended up with leprosy instead of anointing.
- Judas was one of the twelve apostles. He walked with Jesus for three years. He saw miracles every day. He could have been the one to heal the lame man at the Beautiful Gate (Acts 3). But greed made him betray Jesus for thirty pieces of silver. He ended his life in shame.
- Greed will destroy your destiny. It will block Godâ??s power in your life.

Your Heart Must Be Surrendered:

- You cannot hold onto sin and hold onto Godâ??s power at the same time.
- You must give God everythingâ??your desires, your money, your time, your plans. When He has all of you, He can use all of you.

3. God is Looking for Vessels

He Wants to Use You:

- God is a miracle worker. He has all the power. But He needs people to flow through.
- He is looking for men and women who will believe Him, who will surrender to Him, who will live pure lives before Him.
- When He finds such people, He releases His power through them to heal the sick, set the captive free, and show the world that He is real.

Your Life Can Be a Conduit:

- A conduit is something that carries water from one place to another. The water does not belong to the pipe. The pipe just lets it flow.
- In the same way, you do not own Godâ??s power. You just let it flow through you to others.
- When your life is clean and surrendered, the power flows freely.

Your Garment Represents Your Life:

- The Bible talks about garments because clothes are what people see. They represent your outward life.
- If your heart is pure, your life will show it. People will see something different about you.
- And when they touch youâ??when they come close to youâ??they will encounter Godâ??s power.

4. The Testimony of Jesus and Paul

Jesus:

- He was fully surrendered to the Father. He said, â??Not My will, but Yours be doneâ?• (Luke 22:42).
- Because He held nothing back, power flowed through everything connected to Him. Even His shadow? Actually, in Mark 6, it was His garment. But Acts 5:15 says people were healed when Peterâ??s shadow fell on them. The same principle.

Paul:

- He gave up everything to follow Jesus. He counted all his old life as rubbish (Philippians 3:8).
- Because he was fully surrendered, even his handkerchiefs carried healing power.

You:

- The same power is available to you. The same surrender is required from you.

How to Become a Conductor of Godâ??s Power

Surrender Everything to God:

- You cannot hold back any part of your life. Give Him your time, your money, your relationships, your future.
- Say to Him, â??Lord, I am Yours. Do with me as You please.â?•

Keep Your Heart Pure:

- Confess your sins quickly. Do not let sin stay in your life.
- Check your heart for greed, for bitterness, for pride. These things block Godâ??s power.
- Ask the Holy Spirit to show you anything that should not be there.

Stay Close to Jesus:

- You cannot carry His power if you are far from Him. Spend time with Him every day in prayer and in His word.
- The closer you are to the source, the more power flows through you.

Believe That God Wants to Use You:

- Do not think this is only for pastors or special people. It is for every child of God.
- If you believe in Jesus, His power lives in you. Let it flow out.

Step Out in Faith:

- Start praying for people. Lay hands on the sick. Believe that God will work through you.
- As you use the power, it will grow stronger.

Warning: Do Not Let Sin Block the Flow

Sin is Like a Blocked Pipe:

- Water cannot flow through a pipe that is clogged. Power cannot flow through a life that is full of sin.
- Deal with sin quickly. Keep your garment white.

Greed Will Destroy You:

- Gehazi and Judas are warnings. Greed looks like it will give you something, but it will take everything.
- Be content with what God gives you. Trust Him to provide.

Conclusion: You Can Carry His Power

Pray this:
â??Lord Jesus, I want to be a carrier of Your power. I surrender my whole life to You today. Take my heart, my hands, my time, my money, my future. I hold nothing back. Cleanse me from every sin. Show me any greed, any pride, anything that blocks Your power. I confess it and turn away from it. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit. Let Your power flow through me. Let even my presence bring healing to others. Use me to show the world that You are real. In Jesusâ?? name, Amen.â?•

Things to Do:

1. Check Your Heart: Take time to ask God, â??Is there anything in me that blocks Your power?â?• If He shows you something, confess it and let it go.
2. Surrender in Writing: Write down on paper: â??I give God everything. My life is not mine.â?• Sign it and date it. Keep it as a reminder.
3. Pray for Someone This Week: Do not wait until you feel ready. Pray for someone who is sick. Lay hands on them. Trust God to work.
4. Read About Gehazi and Judas: Go back and read 2 Kings 5:20-27 and Matthew 27:3-5. Let their stories warn you about what greed can do.

Remember: God is looking for vessels. He has all the power. He just needs people who are clean and surrendered. Will you be one of them? Your life can carry His power. Your hands can bring healing. Your presence can change situations. Surrender fully, stay pure, and let the power flow.
