OPEN HEAVENS 21 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: PERFECTION IS ATTAINABLE

MEMORISE:

Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.
Matthew 5:48

READ: 2 Peter 1:3-9

According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:
4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.
5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;
6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;
7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.
8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 21 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY MESSAGE

Many people consider perfection as an impossible task. However, todayâ??s memory verse says that it is possible to be perfect, just as our Father in heaven is. This call to perfection is achievable through Godâ??s grace.

But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.
1 Peter 5:10

Grace is the first and most vital ingredient of perfection; it is what imparts divine strength and nature into us, empowering us to live above sin and worldly desires. It is the divine enablement available only to those who are born of the Spirit. Without grace, perfection is unattainable; but with grace, it becomes our nature. Grace gives us the capacity to reflect the character of Christ in our daily conduct. Titus 2:11-12 says, â??For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world.â?•

Perfection in Christ is not the absence of human weakness; it is the presence of godly virtues made possible by grace. To grow in grace, we must continually feed on the word of God. 1 Peter 2:2 says, â??As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby.â?• 2 Peter 3:18 also admonishes us to â??grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christâ?¦â?•

Todayâ??s Bible reading provides a step-by-step guide for achieving perfection in Christ. Apostle Peter admonishes us to add virtue to our faith. In other words, we must add moral excellence and integrity to our walk with God. Next, we are to add knowledge to our virtue, and subsequently, add temperance and patience. Above all these, he points us to charity, which is the pure love of God that binds all virtues together. Love is the crown of perfection, for love fulfils the entire law (Romans 13:10).

Beloved, I want you to know that perfection is not a one-day event. The apostles were not perfect overnight; their continuous walk with Jesus Christ transformed them and positioned them for perfection. Likewise, the closer you walk with Christ, the more you reflect His character and become perfect in Him (2 Corinthians 3:18). I pray that God will make you perfect in every good work to do His will, in Jesusâ?? name (Hebrews 13:20-21).

KEY POINT

Perfection is possible when you continually walk with Jesus.
