OPEN HEAVENS 25 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: WINNING SOULS WITH WISDOM

MEMORISE:

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.
Proverbs 11:30

READ: Acts 17:22-28

Then Paul stood in the midst of Marsâ?? hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.
23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.
24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;
25 Neither is worshipped with menâ??s hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;
26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:
28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 25 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY MESSAGE

When Jesus called His first disciples in Matthew 4:18-19, He compared evangelism to fishing. Every good fisherman understands that a successful fishing exercise depends on more than just throwing a net into the water; it is also about knowing the right bait to use and the right fishing method for the kind of fish that he or she desires to catch. In the same vein, winning souls into Godâ??s Kingdom requires more than just opening your mouth to preach the gospel to unbelievers â?? it also requires wisdom and sensitivity to the leading of the Holy Spirit.

Many Christians rush into preaching the gospel to the lost without first seeking to establish a natural, flowing conversation with them. If you approach unbelievers abruptly, saying, â??Iâ??ve come to preach to you,â?• they might immediately become defensive. However, if you begin conversing with them from an area that genuinely interests them, it will cause their hearts to open naturally, and the gospel can penetrate. Apostle Paul demonstrated this principle perfectly in Athens, as we see in todayâ??s Bible reading. When he noticed an altar bearing the inscription, â??TO THE UNKNOWN GODâ??, he began his message from that point of connection. Rather than condemning their ignorance, he used their existing curiosity to reveal the true God. In doing so, he gained their attention and won some souls:

Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.
Acts 17:34

Beloved, when you engage people during soul-winning outreaches, always seek to connect with them based on their interests. For example, a businessperson will be more interested in listening to you when you speak to him or her using business terms, a farmer will understand the gospel more when you talk about the God who causes seeds to grow, and an artist will reason with you when you explain that every creation must have a creator. Once the hearts of the people you want to preach to are open, you can then introduce them to Jesus Christ, the Saviour of the world.

Child of God, evangelism is not about speeches and arguments â?? it is about the divine power, wisdom, and love of God. When you take time to study and understand the people you want to reach and start conversations with them based on their interests, the Holy Spirit will use your words as bait to draw their hearts to Christ.

ACTION POINT

Today is Christmas Day. Go out to evangelise and tell unbelievers about Godâ??s gift of salvation through Jesus Christ while applying wisdom and being sensitive to the Holy Spiritâ??s leading.

BIBLE IN ONE YEAR
