OPEN HEAVENS 27 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: PRAYER OPENS THE DOOR

MEMORISE:

And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;
Mark 16:17

READ: John 4:46-54

So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.
47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.
48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.
49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.
50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.
51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.
53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.
54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 27 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY MESSAGE

Prayer is one of the most effective keys in evangelism. It is what opens doors, softens hearts, and brings about genuine conversion. When you pray before, during, and after evangelism, God works beyond your words to transform lives. Many people acknowledge that prayer works, so whenever you begin with prayers during evangelism, you already have the attention of the people you want to witness to. In a country like Nigeria, for instance, if you want to evangelise in a public vehicle and you start by praying briefly for a safe trip, peopleâ??s hearts often soften immediately. The moment they sense the presence of God, it becomes easier to share the gospel with them.

In todayâ??s Bible reading, Jesus Christ told the people of Galilee, â??Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.â?• Miracles are Godâ??s tools for convincing doubtful hearts. When people experience answers to prayers, it often becomes difficult for them to deny the power behind the answers.

Prayer makes evangelism effective because it invites the Holy Spirit to work where human efforts cannot. Prayer goes ahead of a preacher to prepare even the hardest of hearts and ensure that it is softened and ready to receive the word. The Lord then confirms His word with signs and wonders (Mark 16:20).

Beloved, whenever you want to preach the gospel to someone, one of the questions you should ask the person is, â??Is there something you would like me to pray about?â?• When God intervenes in that situation, the person becomes interested in knowing more about Jesus. Years ago, some young people whom I had trained in evangelism put this principle into practice. During an evangelical outreach, they met an occultic man who resisted their message. Calmly, they asked if there was any problem he had been unable to solve with all his charms and if they could pray about it.

Surprised, he admitted that every time he married a new wife, she would bleed continuously during pregnancy and eventually die. His new wife at the time was already bleeding and dying. The young people prayed a simple prayer for the man and his wife, and they went on their way. Not long after, they saw the man running after them, shouting in excitement â?? his wife stopped bleeding the moment they prayed. They did not need to preach to the man anymore; right there, he surrendered his life to Jesus Christ and became a new creature.

PRAYER POINT

Father, whenever I share the gospel, please let
Your power accompany my words.
