OPEN HEAVENS 8 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY DEVOTIONAL

TOPIC: THE WORD PRODUCES A NEW BEGINNING

MEMORISE:

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.
Genesis 1:1

READ: Isaiah 41:1-4

Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.
2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.
3 He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.
4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 8 DECEMBER 2026 TODAY MESSAGE

One of the most beautiful things about the word of God is that it produces new beginnings. In Exodus 3:1-5, God called to Moses from the midst of a bush and gave him a new beginning. For years, he had been at the backside of the desert, keeping his father-in-lawâ??s flock; however, before that day was over, he had become the leader of a nation. I pray that God will send His word to you to turn your story around for good, in Jesusâ?? name.

Todayâ??s memory verse tells us that in the beginning, God created the heaven and the earth. However, when you compare Genesis 1:1 with John 1:1, you will begin to wonder whether there were two different beginnings in the Bible. John 1:1 refers to Jesus as the Word of God, who was with God and was God from the beginning, while Genesis 1:1 describes the beginning of creation. Just as the Word of God brought forth heaven and earth at the beginning of creation, it can create a new beginning in your life, family, ministry, business, health, and other areas of your life.

If the Word of God could create heaven and earth, then any negative situation that might exist in your life, no matter how hopeless it may seem, can be recreated by that same Word. Also, no matter how terrible your past may appear to be, the Word of God can give you a new beginning the moment you accept Him as your Lord and personal Saviour. 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, â??Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.â?•

In todayâ??s Bible reading, God said that He was there before the first generation and will still be there even after the last generation. He was faithful in the beginning, and Heâ??ll be faithful until the end. In Revelation 1:8, He declared, â??I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the endingâ?¦which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.â?•

Beloved, the One who was there in the beginning can send His Word into your life, and since He is the Resurrection and the Life (John 11:25), everything that appears dead will be brought back to life. I pray that my Father will go to the beginning of any problem in your life and turn things around for your good, in Jesusâ?? name.

PRAYER POINT

Father, please turn every negative situation that might exist in my life around for good, in Jesusâ?? name.
