TOPIC: PRIVATE MIRACLES

MEMORISE:

Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.
Isaiah 51:2

READ: 2 Kings 4:1-7

Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.
2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.
3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.
5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.
6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.
7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

RCCG OPEN HEAVENS 24 NOVEMBER 2026 TODAYâ??S MESSAGE

When a fellow is about to be blessed by God, especially financially, it is important for that fellow to stay away from fake friends. These are people with impure intentions; they are usually consumed with jealousy and hatred. Such people can delay or hinder the manifestation of Godâ??s blessings in a fellowâ??s life.

In Mark 5:38-40, the moment Jesus said that Jairusâ?? daughter was not dead, the people who were wailing and sympathising with Jairus began to laugh him to scorn. The fact that they were quick to switch from weeping to laughter suggests that they were merely shedding crocodile tears. However, Jesus sent them all out and brought the dead girl back to life.

Beloved, some blessings are for your ears alone. There are certain blessings or information that God does not want you to share with anyone. Also, there are some people you have to stay away from if you want Godâ??s doors of blessings to be opened unto you. In Genesis 12:1-10, God told Abraham that He would bless him so mightily that through his seed, the whole world would be blessed. For that blessing to be manifested, he had to leave his kindred.

However, when Abraham was leaving his country, he took Lot, his nephew, with him, and the heavens were shut against him. Instead of walking into a blessing, Abraham walked into a famine. Abraham also didnâ??t hear from God about His promises again, until Lot departed from him (Genesis 13:14-18). I decree that anyone who might be hindering the manifestation of Godâ??s promises concerning your life will be moved far away from you, in Jesusâ?? name.

In 2 Kings 4:1-2, a widow who was about to lose her two sons to a creditor cried unto Elisha for help. The prophet asked her to tell him what she had in her house, and she responded, â??A pot of oil.â?• Thereafter, Elisha instructed her to borrow many empty vessels, shut the door on herself and her children, and begin to pour out the oil she had into the borrowed vessels. That widowâ??s experience teaches us that certain miracles are not meant to be revealed, even to oneâ??s neighbours. There are some miracles that God will give you that will leave your neighbours and everyone around you guessing and wondering how they happened. I decree that today, the Lord will separate you from enemies who are disguised as friends and neighbours, in Jesusâ?? name.

KEY POINT

Not all miracles are for the public;
some miracles are meant for your eyes and ears alone.

OPEN HEAVENS DEVOTIONAL 24 NOVEMBER 2026 COMMENTARY

Not every miracle is meant to be publicized. Some blessings God gives are so personal, so sacred, that He instructs us to keep them private until the appointed time.

Todayâ??s devotional, â??Private Miracles,â?• is a sobering but necessary message about the people we allow into our space and the secrets we keep. This is a word of wisdom from Daddy. Letâ??s look at some of the lessons from the devotional.

Fake Friends Can Hinder Godâ??s Blessings in Your Life

In Mark 5:38-40, when Jesus said Jairusâ?? daughter was not dead, the people who were wailing and sympathizing with Jairus began to laugh Him to scorn. These people are more comfortable with his predicament than with breakthrough.

Not everyone who cries with you is genuinely for you. Some people are waiting for your downfall. These are the people who speak doubt into your dreams and negativity into your vision. You must be discerning. A fake friend is more dangerous than an enemy because you have given them access. Donâ??t share your vision with everyone. Donâ??t invite everyone into your inner circle.

Some Miracles Are Not Meant to Be Revealed

In 2 Kings 4:1-7, Elisha instructed the widow to borrow many empty vessels, shut the door on herself and her children, and pour out the oil she had into the borrowed vessels. She shut the door â?? the miracle happened in private. Certain miracles are not meant to be revealed. How can Mary, Jesusâ?? mother, broadcast her pregnancy and wonâ??t be stoned to death?

This means that you donâ??t need to broadcast every promise God gives you. Mary kept things in her heart (Luke 2:19). Joseph initially shared his dreams, and his brothers hated him for it (Genesis 37:5-11). There is a time to share and a time to keep silent. Learn to discern the difference. Not everyone needs to know what God is doing in your life.

There Are Some People to Detach from If You Want to Receive Godâ??s Miracle

In Genesis 12:1-10, God told Abraham that He would bless him mightily and make him a blessing to the whole world. For that blessing to be manifested, he had to leave his kindred. However, when Abraham was leaving his country, he took Lot. Abraham also didnâ??t hear from God about His promises again until Lot departed from.

Some people â?? even good people, even family â?? can hinder your destiny. Lot was not a wicked man; he was just not supposed to be on Abrahamâ??s journey. Sometimes, the delay in your blessing is connected to someone you are carrying who is not supposed to be on your journey. This is not about hatred or bitterness; it is about obedience. If God says let them go, let them go.

Guarding Your Miracle

This is a call to wisdom and discernment. Not everyone deserves a front-row seat to your life. Not every promise should be publicized. Not every relationship should be carried into your next season. Guard your miracle. Protect your vision.

Separate from what God is asking you to separate from. And watch as the private miracles of God become the public testimony that everyone will eventually see â?? in Godâ??s perfect timing.

Action Steps

1. Examine your circle. Ask God to reveal any fake friends or negative influences in your life. Be honest about who celebrates you and who secretly undermines you. Make a decision to create distance where necessary.
2. Guard your secrets. Identify the promises God has given you or the things He is doing privately in your life. Commit to keeping some of them between you and God. Donâ??t broadcast what God has not released you to share.
3. Detach from what God says to detach from. If there is a relationship, a connection, or an environment that you know is hindering your spiritual progress or delaying your blessing, take a step of obedience this week to separate yourself.

Prayer Points

1. Father, I thank You for the promises and for the wisdom to protect what You are doing in my life.
2. Lord, expose every fake friend and enemy disguised as a friend in my life. Separate me from those who are hindering my blessing, and give me the discernment to know who is truly for me, in Jesusâ?? name.
3. Father, give me wisdom to know what to share and what to keep private. Help me to guard the secrets You have entrusted to me, in Jesusâ?? name.
4. Lord, I detach from every relationship or influence that is hindering the manifestation of Your promises in my life. Move them far from me, in Jesusâ?? name.

5. Father, I pray that You will open my eyes to the â??Lotsâ?• in my life. Give me the courage to let go of anyone or anything in my journey, in Jesusâ?? name.
6. Lord, let my secret obedience give birth to public reward, in Jesusâ?? name.
7. Father, use my story to glorify Your name and to encourage others, in Jesusâ?? name.
