RCCG HOUSE FELLOWSHIP LEADERS MANUAL 16 JUNE 2024

TOPIC: LOOK UP!

Opening Prayer:

Father, I receive grace to look up unto You daily for help and guidance in Jesus name.

Previous Knowledge:

Leader should remind members what it means to be in God's presence and the benefits thereof.

TODAY'S LESSON

Memory Verse:

"Looking unto Jesus the author and the finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame and is set down at thy right hand of the throne of God."

Hebrews 12:2

Bible Text: Psalms 121:1-3

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

² My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

³ He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Lesson Introduction:

Look up maybe termed divine order to keep all believers from being distracted from godly goals, aims, objectives, divine expectation and being guided from being choked by worldly wolves.

In Genesis 22:3, the Bible says, "Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by its horns." We can see there that God's response to Abraham's expectation was received immediately he looked up to God.

LEADER'S DIARY

Lesson Aim:

To explain to members reasons to always look up at every point in time to the Author and the Finisher of our faith.

Teaching Objectives:

At the end of the lesson, members should be able to:

- understand the need to always look up.
- know the dangers accrued to distractions or drifting focus from God.

Text Review: Psalms 121:1-3

- a. Lifting one's eyes to divine direction will always bring positive response.
- b Only God can grant needed help
- c God will not allow evil to befall you because He does not sleep nor slumber.
- d. God always keep His eyes upon the righteous.

Teaching Method:

Use interactive method.

Time Management:

Share the teaching time using the suggested time schedule.

Lesson Outline One: WHY LOOKING UP?

In this context, we are emphasizing on looking up to God Almighty.

When you look up to God;

- i. a shameful and disgraceful life is terminated – Psalms 34:5.
- ii. only in God, we find help – Psalms 46: 1.
- iii. your recovery will be total – I Samuel 30:8.
- iv. giants will be subdued – I Sam. 17:45-47; Esther 4:14-16; 7:7-10.
- v. your request will be granted – Numbers 14:28; 23:19.
- vi. you receive absolute rest from evil connivances – 1 Kings 5:4; II Sam. 7:1.
- vii. there is validation of our sonship as children of God – 1 John 3:2.
- viii. there is provision from God to guide you to the end without falling.

Lesson Outline Two: THE DANGERS OF LOOKING DOWN

To look down means working contrary to God's pattern, to believe you are self-sufficient, no need for assistance, to believe your success is by your own power.

Let us look at the dangers of not looking up to God.

1. You are exposed to attack since there is suspension of divine presence.
2. Your defence has been withdrawn – I Samuel 19:9.
3. Walking and operating in error – I Samuel 15:9-11.
4. Victory is suspended and curse is unleashed – II Samuel 12:7-12.
5. Affliction and devaluation of godly virtues.

Activity:

Mention biblical characters who obtained their expectation by looking up to God.

SUMMARY:

Help, solution, blessing, etc. can only come from above.

CONCLUSION: RCCG House Fellowship Leaders Manual 16 June 2024

Looking up is an act of readiness to obtain information about something. The lame man at the beautiful gate looked up to Peter and John with full expectation and he was rewarded with victory over stagnation and sickness of many years.

Will you look up to Him?
