OPENING PRAYER:

O Lord, we pray for believers in all nations to arise and turn a new attitude to governance in the name of Jesus.

TODAY'S LESSON

BIBLE PASSAGE: Romans 13:1-6

¹ Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

² Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

³ For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

⁴ For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

⁵ Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

⁶ For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

MEMORY VERSE: Revelation 5:10

And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

INTRODUCTION

The opinion held by some Christians that if they are going to follow Christ, they must be quiet and withdrawn from things happening on the earth, negates the will of God as spelled out in the Scripture.

Christ has called believers unto a life of influence, control, and dominion (Psalms 8:6). They are to take charge (Matthew 5:15-16) and the issue of governance is no exception.

As the light of the world, they are to dispel the darkness of unrighteousness, sycophancy, etc. which are the order of the day, in present-day governance systems of the world.

TEACHER'S DIARY

LESSON AIM:

To study the view of God on governance and why Christians should be involved.

1. THE VIEW OF GOD ON GOVERNANCE

The students should be made to know that:

- i. God instituted governance. It is not a secular concept or people's creation
- ii. God is the ultimate "Governor" who delegates the function to humans (Psalm 44:40. Daniel 4:34).
- iii. It is one of the purposes for which the spirit-being called 'man' was created (Genesis 1:26).
- iv. It is a calling and manifestation of the gift of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:28).
- v. It is a tool for orderliness and sanity (I Corinthians 14:40; Exodus 10:41).
- vi. It is instituted by God for administration, justice, and general welfare or citizens (1 Timothy 2:2)
- vii. Like marriage, it is instituted by God and should be submitted to (Mark 12:17; Romans 13:1-2)
- vi. Governance is servanthood. It is a means of serving the governed (Matthew 20:25-28).
- ix. Governance is a ministry and governors are ministers of God (Romans 13:3-4).

CLASS ACTIVITY 1:

What do you think government can do to deliver more services to the citizens?

2. CHRISTIANS SHOULD BE INVOLVED IN GOVERNANCE

Christians need to be involved in governance because:

1. It is part of our inherent design as believers (Genesis 1:26; Matthew 5:15-16).
2. We are to effect positive and lasting change (Genesis 41:46-49; 53-57).
3. It stands out the nation among other nations (Proverbs 14:34).
4. We shall make righteous laws and decrees that lead to national progress (Mark 6:27; Luke 2:1).
5. It is obeying God's ordinance of submission to authority (Hebrews 13:17, 1 Peter 2:13-14).
6. It brings blessings and breakthroughs to the nation and fulfilment for her citizenry (Proverbs 11:10).
7. Governance is God's institution and the word of God. So, people of God should not be kept out of God's institution (Romans 13:1-6).

8. We must avoid paying the costly price of bad leadership (2 Samuel 23:3).

CLASS ACTIVITY 2:

Mention the dangers of not participating in politics.
