OPENING PRAYER:

Father, help me to please You always.

PREVIOUS KNOWLEDGE:

The teacher should review the previous week's lesson.

TODAY'S LESSON

BIBLE PASSAGE: Romans 8:5-8

⁵ For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

⁶ For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

⁷ Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

⁸ So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

MEMORY VERSE: 1 Thessalonians 4:1

Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus. that as ve have received or us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

INTRODUCTION

Pleasing God is or should be, the goal of all believers-all who call upon the name of Christ for salvation. The requirements for all who want to please God are that they must seek God by faith, walk in the Spirit and not in the flesh, and walk worthy of their calling in obedience and submission to the will of God.

TEACHER'S DIARY

LESSON AIM:

To study the concept of pleasing God.

TEACHING OBJECTIVES:

Through the lesson, students should be able to:

- a. Understand how to please God.
- b. Know what is required to please God.

TEACHING PLAN

To achieve the above-stated objectives, teachers should:

- a. Allow the students to read the Bible passage, recite the memory verse, participate in the class activities and do the assignment.
- b. Allow the Assistant teacher to conduct the class, mark attendance and assignment. grade performance and close the class session with the closing prayer.
- c. Lead the opening prayer, review the previous week's lesson, teach the lesson outlines, summarise, conclude, evaluate the lesson and give an assignment to the students

TEXT REVIEW: Romans 8:5-8

In pleasing God, Apostle Paul in his epistle to the Romans and by extension every believer distinguishes between walking in the flesh and in the Spirit. He stated thus:

- i. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh. but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. V5a.
- ii. For to be V6.
- iii. Because the carnal V7.
- iv. So then they V8.

TEACHING METHOD:

The Lecture Method.

TIME MANAGEMENT:

The teacher should apply two-lesson outlines of teaching time

OUTLINES:

1. WALKING IN THE SPIRIT
2. LIVING BY FAITH AND OBEDIENCE

1. WALKING IN THE SPIRIT

A. Paul reminds the believers in Rome that “they who are in the flesh cannot please God” (Romans 8:8).

i. So the first step in pleasing God is to accept the sacrifice for sin that He provided in the death of Jesus Christ on the cross.

ii. Only then are we “in the Spirit” and not In the flesh.

iii. We do this by faith because

“without faith, it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him”

(Hebrews 11:6).

B. In Romans 8, Paul explains the difference between the sinful nature and the nature of those regenerated by the Spirit.

i. Those who are still in their sin have their minds set on sinful desires, whereas the ones regenerated by Christ have a completely new mind that is controlled by the Spirit and desire to live by following Him (Romans 8:6-8).

ii. The next step for believers in pleasing God is to be sure we are walking in the Spirit, not in the flesh (Galatians 5:16).

CLASS ACTIVITY 1:

From today’s Bible passage, share in your dialect how you can please God.

2. LIVING BY FAITH AND OBEDIENCE

A. We must live by faith (Hebrews 10:38; 11:6). God cannot be pleased with those who:

i. Draw back from Him because they have no confidence in Him (Hebrews 10:39).

ii. Doubt the truth of His declarations and promises (1 Corinthians 1:20).

iii. Do not believe that His way is right, holy and perfect (Psalm 18:30).

B. The requirement of faith and confidence in God is not unreasonable; its just what we require from our children and spouses, and it is an indispensable condition of our being pleased with them. So it is with God.

C. Therefore, pleasing God is a matter of living according to His precepts, and commandments, and doing so in love (John 14:15).

i. The epistles are Gods plan for believers and are filled with exhortations to display throughout our lives the behaviour that is pleasing to God.

“Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God. so ye would abound more and more.”

(1Thessalonians 4:1).

CLASS ACTIVITY 2:

Students should discuss why Christians are to live by faith.

CONCLUSION: RCCG SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS MANUAL 19 NOVEMBER 2023

God wants us to please Him, and He makes it possible for us to please Him. We do these things by the power of His Spirit who lives in our hearts.

QUESTION

- ??What does it mean to walk in the spirit to please God?
- ??Explain the role of faith in pleasing God.

EVALUATION:

How can one please God?

CLOSING PRAYER:

Father, help me to walk in the Spirit all the days of my life, that my life might be pleasing to You
