INTRODUCTION

Cohabitation is a relationship that exists between people who live together and have sexual relationships without being legally married to each other.

Currently, cohabitation seems to be gaining ground among young people. This is not the right concept when put on the scale of God's standard.

We shall look at some things that cohabiting will not do and the way out.

OUTLINES:

1. ???REASONS AND EFFECTS
2. ???THE WAY OUT

1. REASONS AND EFFECTS

Cohabitors venture into this act for various reasons such as to solve their housing problems, emotional attachment, test for compatibility, solve economic problems, etc.

Cohabiting may appear to have solved housing and economic problems but underneath is untold stories of painful experiences (Proverbs 9:17-18).

Cohabiting will not guarantee a perfect relationship (Psalm 127:1).

It is not a surety or an assurance that one will really know the behaviour of the other person fully because the heart is deceitful (Jeremiah 17:9).

It will not change the negative habits of an individual.

It subjugates rather than provides freedom as one is at the whims and caprices of the cohabitant.

The unholy act of fornication will not yield a holy sexual relationship (1 Corinthians 6:18; 7:2; 10:8).

It will not rule out disappointments or skirmishes between the two partners.

The security or sustenance of the relationship is not guaranteed

It may result in unplanned pregnancy, abortion, or unwanted babies.

It can fuel low self-esteem.

CLASS ACTIVITY 1:

Students should share their experience' (if any) or of people they know are in the act of cohabiting.

2. THE WAY OUT

There are many good ways to deal with economic and relationship issues instead of cohabiting (Proverbs 3:5-6).

Do the right thing by getting into a pure and proper courtship with marriage in view (1 Corinthians 7:1-2).

Stop trial and error relationship and get married legally if you know you are mature for marriage (1 Corinthians 7:9).

Make up your mind to honour God with your body because it is the temple of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 3:16-17; 6:19).

Avoid sex before marriage (Hebrews 13:4).

Patience is the rule of the game (Corinthians 13:4).

Get the foundation right so you can build a good and fruitful home on the right footing (Psalm 11:3).

Secure a beautiful and stable future for your children (Galatians 6:7).

CLASS ACTIVITY 2:

Students should discuss other ways of avoiding cohabitation.

CONCLUSION: RCCG YAYA Sunday School Youth 11 February 2024

Cohabiting is a product of disobedience and dishonour. Do the right thing.
