RCCG SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS MANUAL LESSON 19 (11 JANUARY 2026)

TOPIC: MAINTAIN EXCELLENCE

OPENING PRAYER:

Father, help me to excel in life.

PREVIOUS KNOWLEDGE:

The teacher should review the lesson for the previous week.

BIBLE READING

BIBLE PASSAGE: Daniel 6:1-4

1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;
2 And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.
3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.
4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

MEMORY VERSE:

“Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.” 1 Corinthians 10:12.

INTRODUCTION

Reaching the top in any area of life whether in spiritual growth, career, ministry, relationships, etc. is a great achievement. However, staying at the top requires as much dedication as it took to get there (1 Corinthians 9:24-27). Without diligence and balance, one can easily slip from a place of excellence. In this lesson, we will explore how to maintain excellence.

TEACHER’S DIARY

LESSON AIM:

To encourage the students to embrace the culture of excellence.

TEACHING OBJECTIVES:

Through this lesson, students should be able to:

- Describe God as the source of excellence.
- Highlight the methods of maintaining excellence.

TEACHING PLAN:

To achieve the above-stated objectives, the teacher should:

1. Allow the students to recite the memory verse, read the Bible passage, contribute to the discussion, and do class activities and assignments.
2. Allow the Assistant Teacher to see to the wellbeing of the class, and mark attendance and assignment.
3. Teach the lesson outline, summarise, conclude, evaluate the lesson and give assignments.

TEXT REVIEW: Daniel 6:1-4.

King Darius decided to set 120 Princes over his kingdom and three Presidents to oversee the Princes. He also made Daniel the head of the three Presidents. The King preferred Daniel above all the Princes and Presidents because an excellent spirit was in him. He therefore thought to set Daniel over the whole realm.

Read verse 4 and mention how Daniel maintained ex-cellence.

ii. $\frac{1}{3}$ of the class.

iii. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the class.

TEACHING METHOD:

The Lecture Method.

TIME MANAGEMENT:

The teacher should apply the two-lesson outline of teaching time.

LESSON OUTLINE 1: BIBLICAL SOURCE

A. The Bible establishes excellence as a core value rooted in God's nature (Job 37:23). For instance:

- i. God demonstrated excellence by creating the world with order, purpose and beauty (Genesis 1:31).
- ii. As God's children, we are called to imitate Him in all things, excellence inclusive (Ephesians 5:1).

B. Excellence is linked with wisdom (Daniel 5:14) and moral integrity (Daniel 6:2-3).

i. Daniel and Joseph showed excellence in their character and work and these opened doors for them to serve God and others in positions of influence (Daniel 1:8, 20; Genesis 39:7-9).

ii. Thus, the biblical foundation for excellence not only glorifies God but also reflects His transformative power in a believer's life (Daniel 5:11-12).

CLASS ACTIVITY 1:

Mention how an individual can attain excellence.

LESSON OUTLINE 2: THE METHODS

Excellence is not achieved overnight; it requires thoughtful approaches and strategies to preserve and sustain it. The following are some ways to safeguard excellence.

1. Stay anchored in God's purpose. When we stay grounded in God's resolve for our lives, we avoid pride and worldly distractions (Luke 12:16-21).
2. Pray, study the word, and listen to the Holy Spirit as He leads in every step. This is important (Mark 13:33; 2 Peter 1:10).
3. Set boundaries in every area: work, family, ministry, and personal growth. Prioritising balance in your daily life helps to avoid burnout (Ecclesiastes 3:1; Ecclesiastes 4:6). This is because true excellence includes caring for your physical body, as it is the temple of the Holy Spirit (Corinthians 6:19-20).
4. Maintain healthy relationships (1 Timothy 6:18).
5. Stay humble: Be open to learning and improving yourself (James 4:6; Proverbs 11:14).
6. Use your position to serve others with a heart of compassion (Philippians 2:3-4).
7. Mentor those who are coming up behind you. Share your knowledge and resources, and encourage others in their journey (2 Timothy 2:2; Matthew 20:28).
8. Remain diligent and vigilant (1 Corinthians 10:12). Avoid laziness or overconfidence, and keep pressing forward, knowing that excellence is a continuous journey (Proverbs 12:24).
9. Renew your commitment to excellence, set new goals and seek ways to grow spiritually, professionally, and personally (Philippians 3:12-14).

CLASS ACTIVITY 2:

The class should discuss if it is possible to be faultless like Daniel.

CONCLUSION: RCCG Sunday School Teachers Manual 11 January 2026

Maintaining excellence requires balance, humility, focus and a heart anchored in God's purpose.

EVALUATION:

What should be believers' disposition to excellence?

CLOSING PRAYER:

Lord, help me to maintain excellence in all my endeavours in Jesus's name.

ASSIGNMENT: RCCG Sunday School Teachers Manual Lesson 19

Students should identify five (5) methods through which they can safeguard excellence (25=10 Marks).
