BIBLE READING

BIBLE PASSAGE: Psalm 139:1-5

[1] O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.
[2] Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.
[3] Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.
[4] For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.
[5] Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

MEMORY VERSE:

â??And He is before all things, and in Him all things consist.â?• Colossians 1:17 (NKJV)

LESSON INTRODUCTION

The immanence of God refers to His presence, nearness, and active involvement in His creation and in the lives of His people. It is the biblical truth that God is not distant, or merely observing from afar; He is close, attentive, connected and relational. This is different from His transcendence, which means that God is above, infinitely greater, more powerful, distant and separate from the material universe, existing beyond and utterly distinct from everything He created (Jeremiah 23:23; Isaiah 55:9).

TEACHERâ??S DIARY

LESSON AIM: To understand the concept of Godâ??s immanence.

TEACHING OBJECTIVES: Through this lesson, students should be able to:

- Explain the concept of Godâ??s immanence.
- Give biblical instances of Godâ??s immanence.
- Highlight the implications of Godâ??s immanence.

TEXT REVIEW: Psalm 139:1-5

Here, the Psalmist proclaims that the knowledge of God about him (and by implication about all men) is all-encompassing, and there is nothing about him that is hidden from God. He said:

i. O Lord, You have searched me and known me. V1

Then he went ahead to list some of the things he believes that God knows about him:

i. You know my sitting downâ?¦..v2a
ii. You understand myâ?¦.. V2b
iii. You comprehend myâ?¦. V3a
iv. You are acquaintedâ?¦.. V3b
v. There is notâ?¦.. V4
vi. You have hedged meâ?¦.. V5

TEACHING METHOD: The Lecture Method.

TIME MANAGEMENT: The teacher should apply the two-lesson outline of teaching time.

LESSON OUTLINE 1: BIBLICAL INSTANCES

A. God has always been present with and involved in the world He created, especially with His people.

i. At creation, God formed Adam â??from the dustâ?• and breathed life into him (Genesis 2:7).

ii. Godâ??s voice was heard â??walking in the gardenâ?• (Genesis 3:8).

iii. The burning bush reveals Godâ??s personal call to Moses (Exodus 3:4) as well as His awareness, compassion, and active response to the affliction of His people (Exodus 3:7).

iv. Godâ??s presence dwelt among Israel in the tabernacle (Exodus 25:8), and His glory (visibly) filled the temple (1 Kings 8:10-11).

v. David declares Godâ??s inescapable nearness: whether in the heavens, depths, or darkness, God is there (Psalm 139:7).

vi. 1 Kings 19:12 reveals Godâ??s personal and intimate way of speaking to His prophets.

B. Jesus, becoming God in the flesh (John 1:14), is the ultimate act of divine immanence.

i. â??Immanuelâ?• means â??God with usâ?• (Matthew 1:23).

ii. He came to the earth, walked, talked, healed, cried and ate with people.

iii. Jesus promised the Holy Spirit would come to dwell in believers (John 14:17).

iv. The Spirit is not just near but indwelling, guiding, and teaching us (John 14:26).

v. Christ remains present with His people through the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:20).

C. In the New Heavens and New Earth, God will dwell fully and forever with His people (Revelation 21:3). This is the eternal expression of Godâ??s immanence.

CLASS ACTIVITY 1:

The class should discuss whether God is truly present and involved in the world today, especially with the negative occurrences. They can share their life experiences.

LESSON OUTLINE 2: THE IMPLICATIONS

The implications of Godâ??s immanence include:

1. God is accessible â?? We can pray and hear from Him (1 John 5:14-15).
2. God is personal â?? God knows our thoughts, tears, and desires (Psalm 139:1-3).
3. God is compassionate â?? He sees suffering and acts accordingly (Exodus 3:7-8).
4. God disciplines and guides â?? As a Father does (Hebrews 12:6-7).
5. God is worthy of worship â?? Not just as Creator but as a loving Father (Revelation 15:4).

CLASS ACTIVITY 2:

Which of these implications of Godâ??s character do people find hard to believe or experience?

CONCLUSION: RCCG YAYA Sunday School Teachers Manual 6 September 2026

God is not far from believers in Christ: â??for in Him we live and move and have our beingâ?• (Acts 17:27-28).

EVALUATION:

Mention four implications of Godâ??s immanence.

CLOSING PRAYER:

Father, let me enjoy more of your presence, nearness and active involvement in my life in Jesusâ?? name.
